IMPORTANT MEETING

Bradford County Historical Society in Session Saturday.

SOME VALUABLE DONATIONS.

Col. J. H. Horton of Buffalo, Presents Society With Valuable Collection of War Relics Gathered by Himself—Committees Named.

The October meeting of the Bradford County Historical society on Saturday, was of more than ordinary interest, from the fact that several very valuable donations were received, new members were elected, comittees named and matters of importance considered.

President John C. Ingham announced the appointment of the following comittees for he ensuing year: Finance—Dr. E. D. Payne, Charles L. Stewart, E. J. Ayres. Library and Museum—Hon. A. C. Fanning, John A. Biles, A. T. Lilley. Publication—J. Andrew Wilt, C. F. Heverly, Hon. George Moscrip. Membership—I. McPherson, George T. Ingham, Mrs. M. E. Rosenfield. Music and Entertainment, at Meetings—Mrs. Elsie Frost Means, Miss Ida K. Layton, Mrs. R. A. Mercur.

Three new members were elected—Lester R. Frost of Towanda, Col. J. H. Horton of Buffalo, and W. G. Schrier of Athens. Col. Horton in a neat speech presented the society with a collection of war relics, gathered by himself on the fields of battle where he had seen service and also on the famous battlefields he has visited. Mr. Horton stated that on his return to Buffalo he would pack the collection and ship it to Towanda at once. This is one of the most valuable individual collections of war relics in the country, Col. Horton having time and again refused large offers for the collection. It will make a big addition to the already large collection now in the Historical society rooms.

Librarian C. F. Heverly reported the donation of three curios. A tax duplicate of Rome township in 1833, presented by J. W. Barnes, a certificate of stock in the Wysox Brick church bearing the date of 1830, presented by Sylvester Barnes, and a day book of the first store kept in Pike township, presented by O. D. Culver. This book which runs from 1815 to 1825, has some entries which shows the great change in prices since then. One small looking glass is charged up at $2.50, while a gallon of whiskey is listed at 25 cents. Now the mirror would cost a nickle and the whiskey 10 cents a glass. R. A. Mercur, Esq., donated to the society a bullet which was recently found on the battlefield of Petersburg, Va. Mr. Mercur was traveling over the historic field recently, and his guide picked up the bullet and gave it to him for a souvenir. The society gave a hearty vote of thanks to all the donors.

The "old home week" proposition was left in the hands of a committee on behalf of the society and a committee from the Business Men's association.

Secretary Wilt of the committee appointed to mark historical points in the county, reported the visit of the comittee to the old camp ground of General Sullivan at Wysox, and also a tour along the line of march over which Sullivan and his men traveled on their memorable march against the Indians. Mr. Wilt suggested that the society mark the place known as "Gap Rocks," on the Laning farm in Wysox township, where Sullivan and his men cut a road through to take the wagons of the expedition. On motion a committee will be appointed to have chiseled in the face of the rocks a suitable inscription. Mr. Wilt reported on the steps he had taken to secure the meteor which was found at Highland by Thomas B. Spencer.

C. F. Heverly called attention to the fact that on Nov. 12, Mrs. Eliza McKean of Towanda, widow of the late Allen McKean, will observe the hundredth anniversary of her birth, and suggested the Historical society present her with some token on the occasion. On motion a committee was appointed to secure some slight token, present it to Mrs. McKean on her birthday, and extend to her the hearty congratulations of the Bradford County Historical society.

The last business of the meeting was the consideration of the matter of offering prizes to school children for the best historical sketches of boroughs and townships in the county. A committee was appointed to consider the matter of prizes and report at the next meeing.

Towanda the Favored Town.

Towanda is the only town in Northern Pennsylvania to be favored with a visit from John O. Sheatz, Republican candidate for state treasurer. He speaks in Harrisburg on Thursday, comes to Towanda where he addresses a meeting in Hale's Opera House Friday evening, going on to Erie for an address on Saturday. The Germania band will furnish music for the Towanda meeting, and a large crowd is expected to be present.

SHEATZ NO MAN'S MAN

Candidate for State Treasurer Will Pay His Own Bond.

TO BE UNDER NO OBLIGATIONS

Republican Color Bearer Who Speaks in Towanda Friday Evening, Will Furnish in Cash His $500,000 Bond—Special Train on Lehigh.

John O. Sheatz, Republican candidate for state treasurer, who will address the voters of Bradford county at Hale's Opera House in Towanda, tomorrow, Friday evening, said in a recent speech, that if elected to that office, he would pay for his bond out of his own pocket. His exact words are as follows:

"As a piece of information for the people of Pennsylvania, I wish to say that if I am elected treasurer of this great state, when the time comes for me to file my bond of $500,000, I shall pay for it out of my own pocket, and not permit an obliging president of a trust company to arrange my security for me, thereby placing myself under obligations to that trust company to have $600,000 or $700,000 of the state's money constantly on deposit in that particular institution. I shall keep myself just as free from the dictations of the money powers as I am of the political powers."

A declaration of this character will appeal to the honesty and fair-mindedness of every citizen of the state, for it shows the independence of Mr. Sheatz and stamps him as a man of his word. Under the circumstances the plain duty of Republican voters in Pennsylvania is to elect John O. Sheatz. There is no claim that he is not honest, capable, and fit in every way. There is no claim that he is owned by any faction, clique, or individual. He is the choice of a Republican convention, unhampered by any dictation.

Wise Republicans will not aid in the project to encourage the Democratic party in the nation by defeating the Republican nominee for treasurer. They will not, if they are wise, hearken to the sophristry of the eager Democratic organs which preach the doctrine of Republican dishonesty and Democratic saintliness. Should they do so, and Pennsylvania be made to appear as favoring the Democratic party, they must not be surprised at the Democratic snicker, the laugh in the sleeve, that will greet them, the morning after.

Large Crowd Expected in Towanda.

Mr. Sheatz will deliver an address in Hale's Opera House tomorrow night. He comes direct from Harrisburg, and goes to Erie where he speaks Saturday night, closing the campaign. People from all over Bradford county are coming to Towanda to hear the address, old time Republican enthusiasm having been aroused.

In Hale's Opera House tomorrow tion of people from up the line will leave the Washington street station after the meeting Friday evening, stopping at Court street, Ulster, Milan, Athens and Sayre. Extra coaches will be on each train stopping at Towanda Friday afternoon and evening.

Large delegations are expected from every section of Bradford county, and the Republican color bearer will be welcomed by a crowd of sufficient proportions to make him and every loyal Republican glad.

Social at West Franklin.

The Christian Endeavor society of West Franklin, will give a masquerade Hallowe'en social at the hall, Thursday evening, Oct. 31. A variety of entertainment has been arranged, consisting of music, marches and Hallowe'en games. A fortune teller will be present who will reveal among other mysteries the name of your future wife. Home made candies will be on sale, and refreshments will be served.

Recent Births.

The stork was good to Pottervill people during the past few days. Dr and Mrs. Williams were presented with a daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Manchester were made happy with a son. Mr. and Mrs. J A. Fox of Wyalusing, are rejoicing over the arrival of a daughter.

Bagged Big Game.

Six deer and two large moose were killed in Maine and shipped to Wilkes-Barre by Thomas A. Wright, general manager of the Traction company, George C. Lewis of Phelps. Lewis & Bennett company, and Doctors A. B Miller of Kingston, and Harter of Nanticoke. They broke camp on Saturday.

Annual Roll Call.

The annual roll call and oyster supper of the Springfield Lodge, No. 381 I. O. O. F., will be held in their hall on Friday evening, Nov. 3. All members and their families are cordially invited to attend.

SUSPECTS IN CUSTODY

Italians Arrested in Canton Wit Horrible Crime Charged.

ARE WANTED IN CONNECTICUT

Prisoners Are Accused by a Detective From Bridgeport, of Having Been Concerned in the Fiendish Murder of a Boy Last October.

Domenico Cicceo and Guiseppe Mantella, Italians, confined in the Canton jail awaiting extradiction papers from Connecticut, where they are wanted to answer to the charge of the most fiendish and horrible murders ever committed in that state.

The Italians were arrested at Canton on Thursday and committed after a hearing before Justice Cleveland. The arrests were made by State Detective Frank Virelli of Bridgeport, assisted by Detective Innes of Canton, the suspects being taken without trouble from their work on the P., B. and E., where they were employed by Holbrook, Cabot & Rollins, contractors.

The crime for which they are wanted was comimtted in Bridgeport, Conn., on Oct. 6, 1906.

On that day Philip Mastriano, a young Italian boy, was enticed into the wods, brutally assaulted and then murdered. An examination of his body revealed the most shocking treatment. The people were intense in their excitement and for a year a detective has been searching for the men arrested in Canton, who were working in Bridgeport at the time of the murder, and who left the next day, stating, it is alleged, that they were going to Italy.

State Detective Virelli located the men in Canton and came after them.

At the hearing before Justice Cleveland the men protested their innocence, but the detective's story was so strong that the suspects were committed to jail, pending the arrival of requisition papers.

PROSPEROUS PENNSYLVANIA.

The Revenues of the State This Year Exceed Those of Last Year.

Prosperity and good management are reflected in the financial condition of the Pennsylvania state treasury. The revenues of the state this year will reach the unprecedented total of $26,000,000, as against $22,818,992 last year. Not only will the revenues this year be larger than ever before but for the first time in recent years will exceed the payments. Collections for current year to date have been $24,648,294.05. This is $206,775.07 more than to Oct. 21 of last year, while last year's revenues included $237,000 from the United States on account of war claims and $147,000 back taxes from Philadelphia, items not duplicated this year.

The actual income from ordinary sources thus far this year has been $590,000 in excess of last year. Payments from the state treasury this year aggregate thus far $22,420,134.52, which is $2,288,159.53 more than payments in the similar period of last year.

The fiscal officers estimated that the revenues this year will exceed the payments by from $2,500,000 to $3,000,000. As a result the state will be able to pay the increased public school appropriation of $7,500,000 as soon as it becomes available next June. The increase in the revenues of this year is due to the effective collection work of the auditor general's department and the great increase in the value of the capital stock of Pennsylvania corporations, due to the unprecedented good times. As an illustration, the Philadelphia and Reading railroad paid $170,000 more tax on capital stock this year than last year. All the big corporations have paid their tax for this year, except the Philadelphia Company, which controls the trolley lines and gas companies of Pittsburg. Its payment will amount to $250,000.

Successful After All.

The Italian who cut his throat and then jumped out of a car window in train No. 8, as it was passing Wysox, died in the Bradford county poor house at Burlington, Thursday morning. When he jumped from the train he injured his head badly, and was otherwise hurt. He was in the hospital for some time, but was insane and the only way to keep him quiet was to tie him down, and then he made so much noise that he continually bothered the other patients. He was sent to the county house as soon as it was safe to let him out of the hospital. Italians in the place refused to take care of the body, and so the county will pay for the burial.

Editor Fined for Assault.

To pay a fine of $25 or spend 25 days in jail, was the sentence imposed on A. O. Perkins, editor of The Binghamton Democratic News, by Acting Recorder H. C. Olmsted, in police court on Saturday. Mr. Perkins pleaded guilty to the charge of assault in the third degree, preferred by W. D. Thompson. He paid the fine.

JUDGE FANNING HANDS DOWN TWO VERY IMPORTANT OPINIONS

Decides That Persons Have No Right to Fish Illegally in Private Ponds—Cash Road Tax Must Be Paid and Cannot Be Worked Out.

Two of the most important court decisions filed in a long while and which affect Bradford county from boundary to boundary, were handed down by Judge Fanning yesterday afternoon. Judge Fanning Friday afternoon. the law relating to the catching of game fish, covers every stream and body of water in the state, and that a person must observe the law whether fishing in a private pond or in an open stream.

The Case.

The case in which this sweeping decision was made was the one in which J. H. Storch was arrested in 1905, charged with shooting, killing and taking one pickerel from Haigh's woolen mill pond near LeRaysville in Pike township. Storch set up the defense that he had leased the pond, that it was a private body of water and that he had a right to fish there any way he pleased. After reviewing the case Judge Fanning opined, the court finds defendant, J. H. Storch, guilty of illegal fishing, taking fish as charged in the complaint, which is contrary to law, and that the defendant shall appear for sentence.

This opinion is far reaching as it will decide five other cases of a similar nature yet to be disposed of in this county.

The Tax Case.

The tax case on which Judge Fanning ruled and which is of great importance in this county, was entitled J. L. Elsbree vs. E. F. Kellar and other supervisors of Athens township, a bill in equity to restrain the collection of cash road taxes.

The Athens township supervisors levied a road work tax of three mills, and seven mills cash tax. Mr. Elsbree worked out the three mill tax, paid in cash two mills of the seven and demanded the privilege of working out the other five. This was refused, whereupon he refused to pay in cash the other five mills, and the supervisors proceeded to collect the same by levy and other processes of law.

Judge Fanning in this case, opined the tax levy act of 1905 does not repeal the cash levy act of 1846 and that the plaintiff, Mr. Elebree must pay in cash the remaining five mills.

Another Fish Case.

Another fish case decided by the court Friday was the Commonwealth vs. William and Henry Southworth. These men after being convicted of taking pickerel with a snatch hook through the ice which is contrary to law, took an appeal to court. The rule has been discharged by Judge Fanning and the Southworths must pay their fines. It will be remembered that at the hearing of this case, one of the defendants testified that he was not fishing, but was on his knees on the ice praying.

FOUND DEAD IN BED.

Leslie M. Lettis Passes From Sleep Unto Death Monday Morning.

Leslie M. Lettis, aged 58, and a native of Cooperstown, N. Y., was found dead in bed at the home of George Brink, a tenant on the J. C. Piollet farm, in Wysox, early Monday morning. His passing ends the career of a man, who had seen better days, and who perhaps at one time had a promising future.

Lettis came to Towanda several months ago, and for a long time worked about hotels and saloons, drinking heavily, which undermined his health. On Saturday he went to the home of Mr. Brink in Wysox and hired out to work for his board. He was nervous, debilitated from alcoholic excesses on Sunday complained of feeling ill, with pains in his chest and nausea, and was very weak. Sunday night he retired at 9 o'clock and when found Monday morning the body was cold in death the end having evidently came while he slept shortly after midnight. Dr. Reed examined his body and as death was undoubtedly due to heart failure caused by alcoholic excesses, a coroner's inquest was not deemed necessary.

From letters found in the possession of the dead man, it was learned that he has two children and a brother living in Cooperstown, N. Y. The brother had sent money in two of the letters urging that he purchase clothes and try and straighten up. The last letter in which more money had been sent, urged the unfortunate man to hire out to some farmer to work for his board, and after complying with this request of the devoted brother, he passed away.

Lettis, in life, was a man of fine physique, weighing about 225 pounds with a tall straight form, and pleasant intelligent features. Once upon a time he had evidently been very refined and had evidently seen much better and happier days than were his last.

AGED WOMAN CONVICTED.

Given a Light Sentence for Killing Husband in Pike County.

Convicted by a Pike county jury of having murdered her husband, John Neuman, with a pitchfork, Mrs. Dora Neuman, aged 74 years, has been sentenced to serve one year and six months in the Eastern penitentiary. On account of the advanced age of the defendant the trial has attracted widespread attention and it was believed by many that a not guilty verdict would be returned. Counsel for the convicted woman are preparing to appeal for a new trial.

William Rodlewski, a son of the defandant by a former marriage, was also charged with the murder but has been released and another son, Antonio, was held under $500 bail.

Returned to the Senders.

The report of undelivered mail matter handled by the dead letter office in September last, shows that 1,005,990 pieces of mail were received, and 235,961 pieces returned to the senders. In these letters money to the amount of $5,251.71 was found, of which $4,371.64 was returned to the senders.

CROWLEY WAS ILL WHEN HE FELL FROM CAR.

Bradford Countian is Still in Critical Condition in Scranton.

That David Crowley of Morley Hill, Bradford county, the Scranton railway conductor, who is in so critical a condition at the State hospital in Scranton, with a fractured skull that he is not expected to live, was ill when he fell from the street car in North Scranton, Sunday night, is now an established fact.

It is claimed by some of his friends, that he reported his illness to the dispatcher on duty at the time, and asked to be relieved, but this is denied by the company officials. They say he asked a fellow conductor to complete his run, but that he did not mention that he was ill and, as the conductor had another engagement, he declined to do so.

Crowley met with his accident, shortly after 11 o'clock. It is believed that he was either faint, or was leaning from the car, vomiting, when it dashed around a curve and he was thrown off and down a 25-foot embankment.

The men who were on duty at the railway office, Sunday night, declare that Crowley did not mention that he was ill. He was in the office, just before going out on the run, to set his watch, and appeared to be in a jovial mood. He would have been through for the day about 12:30 o'clock, after making another trip.

Farmers' Institutees.

The farmers of this county will be interested to learn that there will be held this year a series of Farmers' Institutes at Wilmot, Nov. 22 and 23; Rome, Nov. 25 and 26; West Burlington, Nov. 27 and 28; Columbia X Roads, Dec. 16 and 17. A number of instructors from other parts of the state will be present to join with the farmers of this locality in the discussion of topics relative to agriculture. These meetings are free and open to all, and no doubt the farmers of this county will avail themselves of the advantages to be gained by attending these meetings.

More Names in Jury Wheel.

Judge Fanning and Jury Commissioners Graham and Scott, Thursday placed an additional 150 names in the jury wheel to complete the court business of the year. The extra panels used during the Sharrone murder trial last May depleted the stock of names in the wheel and the extras drawn yesterday will make up the deficiency. This is the first time it has been necessary to place extra names in the wheel since 1904.

Thrown From Train.

John Baker, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Baker of Thomas street, Towanda, sustained severe injuries by being thrown from a train in the D. L. and W. yards at Binghamton, Wednesday night. Baker is employed as brakeman and met with the accident while in the discharge of his duties. He was thrown with sufficient force to break off a switch light against which he struck.

WILL PARADE FRIDAY

Towanda Volunteer Firemen Will March to the Music of the Band

INSPECTION OF THE "FINEST"

Fire Board Changes Date From Thursday to Friday to Have a Bigger and Better Band, and a Larger Turnout.

Friday of this week will be a hummer in Towanda. On the afternoon of that day the annual parade and inspection of the Towanda Volunteer Fire department will be held, and in the evening, besides the mass meeting in Hale's Opera House, to be addressed by John O. Sheatz, the Republican candidate for state treasurer, there will be a band concert, dance and other amusements and events of interest.

The fire board Friday night changed the date of the parade from Thursday to Friday, the day on which the big political campaigning party visits the county seat. The line of march will move promptly at 3 o'clock.

Leader Walker, of the Germania band, has engaged several outside musicians to augument his organization for the political meeting Friday night, and by having the parade on the afternoon of that day, the firemen get the benefit of the enlarged and better band. It is expected a large crowd of people from the surrounding country will be in town on that day.

Towanda, fortunately, has the largest, finest equipped and best drilled volunteer fire department of any town its size in America. The five companies are drilled to perfection, almost, and when out on parade, they make a fine appeaarnce. The department, with the Germania band, and the fire fighting apparatus, including the magnificent Franklin steamer, make a parade worth going miles to see, and this year it will be bigger and better than ever before. Naiad Hose company No. 2, will make their first appearance in Towanda wearing their handsome new uniforms, which are said to be about as nice and attractive as can be found anywhere.

Friday evening after the mass meeting in Hale's Opera House, the Germania band will give a concert in one of the spacious halls with which Towanda is well supplied, followed by the rendition of a program of dance music. Altogether the day and evening will be of more than ordinary interest.

Veteran Cuts a Tooth.

A gentleman from the embryo cities in the Northeastern portion of Bradford county, was through this place very recently, introduced as an aspiring candidate for county treasurer and pretty nearly all of our worthy farmers request us to ask what brand of cigars he uses as the fragrance and ashes therefrom were inviting to say the least. Not that our worthy citizens are voracious or unable to buy their own cigars but they notice things even if they are "moss back" farmers. Once upon a time a man went through here so penurious that he sat in the wagon and held the horse while his escort went in and ate dinner. Our worthy farmers are not so green or far behind custom and usages as they might be.

Happenings All Over the State In Condensed Form.

TWO TON METEOR FOUND

Men Shot in Their Own Home by an Amateur Hunter — Farmer Broke Thirty-Three Day Fast by Eating Roasting Ears and Died. 6

Fifteen persons have announced themselves as candidates for county treasurer in Jefferson county, and there will be about as many for county commissioner.

Several years ago a little son of Sherman Hoon of Beaver Falls, was knocked down and killed by a street car. P. A. Kuehner picked up the dead child. On Thursday at almost the same hour another little son of Mr. Hoon was struck by a car and severely injured, and by a singular coincidence Mr. Kuehner was again nearby and picked up the injured boy.

While Thomas Trees and William Coss of Tarentum, were returning on Thursday from a coon hunting trip, in a covered wagon, a gasoline lamp exploded, throwing the burning liquid over the wagon and the men. The top of the wagon was burned off, the men were severely burned and the horses plunged down an embankment into the Allegheny river.

Three weeks ago a pocketbook containing $44 was rifled in the home of J. A. Craig, in Butler. On Sunday the money was returned while the same family was away and was placed in the same pocketbook from which it had been taken. Two cases of goods stolen on Saturday night from the store of W. H. DeArme have also been returned. Both cases are a mystery.

A meteor weighing two tons was found imbedded in a clay bank, 40 feet from the surface, near Clermont, McKean county, a few days ago. The sewer pipe clay vein in which the meteor rested was under a five-foot vein of coal, showing that the coal was formed after the meteor fell, ages and ages ago. The meteor will be removed and will be presented to the McKean County Historical society.

Benjamin Snodgrass, a farmer of Greene township, Mercur county, who recently broke a fast of 33 days by eating roasting ears and apple pies, died on Sunday, aged 78 years.

The congregation of the Emmanuel Lutheran church, Brickerville, Lancaster county, organized in 1730, on Sunday began the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the erection of the present building. Services are to be continued throughout the week. During the Revolution the old church was used as a hospital for American soldiers.

While several boys were chestnuting in the Wissahickon woods, Philadelphia, on Sunday, Harold Bayer of Wissahickon, aged 14 years, was looking upwards with his mouth open while another boy threw up a club, when a chestnut burr dropped into his mouth. The prickly burr gave him intense pain until after a physician had removed all the pointed prickles.

Dr. Jesse Z. Hillegass of Allentown has sued the Lehigh Valley railroad to recover $800 damages as the result of delay in forwarding a carload of horses nearly a year ago. It required two days for the road to transport the horses, the plaintiff alleges, and in consequence they arrived in a bruised and emaciated condition.

While Harry Eames, aged three years, of Philadelphia, was petting a huge Newfoundland dog on Monday, the dog turned on him and bit him in the face, tearing off his nose. In a semi-unconscious condition the boy was taken to the Presbyterian hospital, where the physicians said it would be remarkable if he recovers.

As Irvin and John Spangler, brothers, and Robert Gibson, were sitting late on Sunday night in their own home at North Catasauqua, Lehigh county, they were hit in their faces with a charge of shot, fired, it is believed, by some careless moonlight rabbit hunter. Gibson's pipe was knocked out of his mouth and more than 50 shot were removed from their faces by physicians.

A Wilkes-Barre man is in jail to stay 30 days for stealing a pair of shoes for his little barefoot girl.

Miss Pauline Simpson, aged 40 years, a prominent church worker of McKeesport, committed suicide Tuesday by drinking carbolic acid. Miss Simpson was a sufferer from nervousness caused by the sudden death of her father last December and this was incensed by fears for her niece because persons from a neighboring house where there was diphtheria had called at the Simpson home a few days ago.

Laura Johnson, a 15 years old negro pupil of the public school at Whitford, Chester county, has been held in $300 for trial at court on a charge of having assaulted and bitten severely on the arm her teacher, Miss Hazel Huey, of Lenape.

On Tuesday evening as Frank Trono was being hoisted in a bucket out of the new 1,000-foot shaft of the Eagle colliery, near Pottsville, shouts from a companion below caused him to lean out and look down when he lost his balance and fell down from near the top. He met a frightful death, nearly every bone in his body being broken.

A verdict of Manslaughter was returned Thursday against Benjamin Courtright, aged 22, for the killing of Harvey Cron, a farmer. Courtright's mother, 75 years old, was acquitted. Cron met his death during a fight with the Courtrights on a hay wagon in August last. Young Courtright was sentenced to 15 years in the penitentiary.

Solomon Freidker, aged 52 years, a meat merchant of Chester, was driving on West Seventh street in that city on Wednesday, when a trolley car struck his vehicle, tilting it over and throwing him out. He rolled beneath the car and was instantly killed.

Charles S. Cameron, president of the Pittsburg and Tube City Railroad company, line not yet constructed, failed to answer to his name when called in the criminal court in Pittsburg on Wednesday, for sentence, and his bonds, amounting to $12,000, were declared forfeited by the court.

Robert Younse of Allentown, after an illness of 13 weeks, died on his 23rd birthday anniversary on Wednesday, just as the letter carrier rang the doorbell to deliver nearly 200 souvenir post cards which his friends had sent to surprise and cheer him.

Rocchina Porzio, aged 13 years, of Philadelphia, obtained a license on Thursday to marry Pietro Romano, of the same city, aged 24 years. The child's mother was present and gave her consent to her marriage, saying that she felt that she was going to die soon and wanted to see Rocchinna provided for.

John Ellmore, the "poor cobbler" of Altoona, who invented a method to burn ashes, announces that he had also discovered a way to manufacture such a compound that for ten cents a ton of coal could be treated and made to do the work of two tons.

A freak in vegetable growth has been added to the collection in the museum of the zoology division of the State Department of Agriculture. This freak was a radish which grew in the garden of Martin Herzog, a Tyrone cigarmaker, and wes sent to Harrisburg by Representative Thompson, of Blai rcounty. The radish is 6 inches long and so closely resembles the human form that at a glance it would be taken for a newly-born babe. It is marked so as to resemble the eyes, nose, mouth, neck, breast, waistline, abdomen, thighs and legs of a human being. In a letter which accompanied the radish Mr. Thompson says that in looking over an English record in which were shown illustrations of peculiarities in vegetable growth he found nothing among the illustrations or descriptions that equaled this one.

on a roof and sustained painful injuries.

The Gem Laundry caught fire on Thursday morning, but before the fire whistle had ceased blowing the flames were extinguished.

We again advise the President to abandon his Southern bear hunt and come to Canton. Last week Thomas Leahy and Sam Keltz each killed a large bear near Rock Run, making three bears that have been shot on Rock Run this season.

Monday afternoon Emerson B. Wilcox, traveling salesman for the Thomas G. Miller paper mill, met with a serious mishap while engaged in picking apples from a tree in his yard in Canton. He was working on a limb about 12 feet from the ground when it broke and he was precipitated to the ground. Drs. Davison and Parsons were called and they found that the bones of both feet were broken. He was made as comfortable as possible, but it will be some time before he can walk.

While Merritt Smith and a friend were hunting in Rutland last week, they flushed a pheasant. If either or both fired at all their aim was not good. Hoping for another chance they followed along in the general course of the bird's flight until they came to a wire fence. There to their surprise hung the pheasant, its head fast in the wire meshes. It had wrung its neck in a frantic effort to release itself. The windpipe only remained intact.

The patriotic cantata, "Columbia," was given in the Sunday school room of the Methodist church Friday night. A chorus of 50 voices and songs of a patriotic nature were features of a splendid program.

Miss Roberta Logul, a servant girl of Braddock, Allegheny county, was arrested on Thursday last for having made ugly faces and stuck out her tongue at members of the police force. At the hearing before the acting burgess she was fined at the rate of a cent a face and three cents for her tongue motions, which, with costs amounted to $7.35.

J. G. Hoose, who lives near Sabinsville, Tioga county, has had bad luck recently with his herd of cows. A fine blooded bull was found dead in the pasture. Next day his stock got on the railroad through a defective fence. He discovered their danger and ran to drive them off, but before he could accomplish his purpose a Buffalo and Susquehanna engine plowed through the herd and killed three.

A. A. Callahan of Delmar, Tioga county, has been awarded the contract of the Lick Run company to stock and manufacture about 5,000,000 feet of pine and hemlock on a lumber tract near Haneyville, Clinton county. It will take about three years to complete the job. The bark will be hauled from Haneyville to Waterville.

The will of the late Samuel McVitty of Amberson, Franklin county, which was admitted to probate on Tuesday, was submitted to an unusual process. It seems that when the will was written, according to a story told in the register's office, Mr. McVitty had signed the document in the wrong place, so in order that the signature might appear in its proper place the lower end of the will was cut off and the signature cut out and pasted where it should appear. The property is disposed of among all his children, except one son, who is entirely cut off without any of his father's property.

Be on hand when the doors swing open, Friday, Nov. 1, at 9 a. m. Kaufman's sale. Look for the big green front.

WORK OF THE GRIM REAPER.

LYMAN S. CHUBBUCK DEAD.

Native of Orwell Passed Away in Sunbury Monday Morning.

Lyman Sheldon Chubbuck, a native of Orwell and a member of a family which played an important part in the settlement of Eastern Bradford county in the early days, died Monday morning at the home of his son, Ephton E. Chubbuck, superintendent of the Odd Fellows' Orphans' Home at Sunbury, where he has been living for some time.

Deceased was born in Orwell on Feb. 20, 1822, therefore being 85 years of age. He was the son of Nathaniel Chubbuck, Jr., who came to Bradford county from Connecticut in 1811, and at whose log house in 1813 the first Methodist sermon ever preached in Orwell township was delivered by Marmaduke Pierce, who came from the oldest settlements down the river at Mr. Chubbuck's invitation. Nathaniel Chubbuck, father of the subject of this sketch, shortly afterwards joined the Methodist church, and for many years preached to his neighbors and friends.

Lyman Sheldon Chubbuck spent the active years of his life on the old homestead in Orwell, where he was born and reared. He received a common school education, and took a course at the old Towanda academy. At the age of 16 he commenced teaching, following that vocation for many years during the Winter, giving his attention to farming in the Summer, and in the Fall attending the Towanda academy. Completing his academical course, he continued teaching and farming for nearly 30 years, after which he gave his entire attention to agricultural pursuits. He made a business of raising stock for the Eastern markets and was very successful in that line.

Mr. Chubbuck was united in marriage Aug. 21, 1845, to Phoeba, daughter of Daniel and Deborah Gleason of Connecticut, to which union four children were born—Mary Chubbuck, wife of Dr. O. D. Stiles of Elmira, Melville E. Chubbuck of Towanda, Clara E., wife of C. W. Stevens, and Ephton E. Chubbuck, superintendent of the Odd Fellows' Orphans' Home at Sunbury.

Deceased was a gentleman of great resources, and ever striving to better himself and those about him. While he never aspired to public office, his neighbors honored him with the office of township auditor for 30 years, and for three years he was township commissioner, fulfilling every obligation of those offices to the satisfaction of all. He was a gentleman of the old school, with a fearless christian character, being a devoted member of the Methodist church since a boy of 16, and he numbered his friends by the score. They will regret to learn of his demise.

Leonard J. Segar.

Leonard J. Segar, a well known farmer and life long resident of Athens township, died suddenly at his home on Orange Hill, about 12:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, from heart trouble. For several weeks his health had been failing, a condition which is supposed to have been aggravated by worry over business troubles. Wednesday he was about the house as usual and shortly before noon went to the orchard where his brother George, was picking apples, and told him to come to dinner. Soon after they entered the house, the former complained of not feeling well and said he had overdone and would lie down a little while. This he did and less than five minutes later his brother hearing him gurgle went to his bedside and found him dead. He was born in Sheshequin township 58 years ago and had never married, living alone on his farm. He is survived by three brothers: Charles and George Segar of Athens township, and Fred Segar of Nichols, N. Y. The funeral will be held in the Orange Hill school house at 1 o'clock this afternoon, and interment will be made in the cemetery at Sheshequin.

Ralph Keating Dead.

Ralph Keating, the ten years old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Winslow Keating, died Sunday morning at 10:30 at the family home on Second street. He had been ill for about three months with rheumatism, which finally attacked his heart, and in spite of the best medical attention and tender care, proved fatal. Ralph was an exceptionally bright boy, with fine, manly qualities and a sunny disposition which endeared him to every one he knew. Until being taken ill, he was strong and rugged, the picture of robust health. His death is a sad blow to the parents and young brothers and sisters, and the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community goes out to them in their bereavement.

Miss Hulda Morley.

Miss Hulda Morley died Saturday afternoon at the home of Henry Gridley, in Waverly, after a brief illness of pneumonia, aged 80 years. The deceased was a lifelong resident of this section having at one time lived on the Morley farm near Athens. She never married, and leaves of her immediate family one sister,, Mrs. John Ovenshire of Sayre, and one brother Job Morley of Burlington. The funeral was held from her late home Monday afternoon and interment was made at Tioga Point cemetery. Mrs. Luman Putnam of Towanda, is a niece, and Sheriff Griffin is a nephew of the deceased.

Miss Martha Ayres.

Miss Martha Ayres died at the home of Edward Cortright at Columbia X Roads Monday morning of paralysis. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the Rev. Randall will conduct the services.

PERLEY H. BUCK DEAD.

Well Known Pike Township Citizen Passes Away in LeRaysville.

Perley H. Buck, one of Pike township's oldest and best known citizens, passed away at his home in LeRaysville, Tuesday afternoon at 1:30. He had been in feeble health for ten years, but had been confined to his bed for only four weeks. Death was due to a complication of diseases.

Thirty-five years ago Perley H. Buck was an active participant in the affairs of Bradford county, being a representative from this district in 1871-2. The first public office he held was in 1853 when he was elected county commissioner. He was born in Pike township 84 years ago, being a son of William Buck, a native of New Hampshire and one of the three original settlers in Pike township, he locating where the village of LeRaysville now stands, clearing and improving a farm where he spent the greater share of his life and where he died.

Perley H. Buck was reared on the old homestead, and followed the pursuits of farming, living on the old home farm until 1867, when he moved into LeRaysville borough. His wife, Elizabeth, was a daughter of Amos Northrop, at one time a resident of Bradford county, and of Connecticut stock. The following children were born to this union: Mrs. Martin S. Prentice, George W. Buck, Mrs. William J. Davis, Samuel W. Buck, Walter P. Buck, and Mrs. Leslie A. Codding. Mrs. Buck, the mother, passed away a number of years ago, and only the following children survive the late father: Walter P. Buck of New London, Conn., George W. Buck of Duluth, and Mrs. Davies, at home.

MRS GEORGE LANDON DEAD.

Aged and Respetced Lady Passes Away at Camptown.

Mrs. Carrie Smith Landon, widow of the late George Landon, of Herrick, and one of the best known and most highly esteemed ladies in the Eastern part of the county, died Sunday noon, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. S. Lafferty, in Camptown.

Deceased was born in Center Moreland, Wyoming county, 77 years ago, her maiden name being Carrie Smith. After her marriage to the late George Landon, they took up their residence in Herrick where they resided on the old homestead for many years until the death of Mr. Landon. She had been making her home with her daughter, Mrs. W. S. Lafferty at Camptown for some time. Mrs. Landon was a lady of many beautiful traits of character, a life long christian, being a devoted member of the Methodist church, in the affairs of which she for many years took a very active interest. A large circle of friends will ever cherish her memory.

Surviving are four sons—Benson Landon, Chicago, S. G. Landon of Schenectady, N. Y., Herbert Landon of Herrick, and Robert D. Landon of Scranton; also three daughters—Mrs. W. P. Buck of New London, Conn., Mrs. Carrie Rhinehart, and Mrs. W. S. Lafferty of Camptown. DeWitt Smith of Wyoming county, is a brother of the deceased.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the Lafferty home, in Camptown, and interment was made in the cemetery at that place.

Horace Larrison.

Horace Larrison fell asleep in death at his home in Ridgebury, Wednesday evening, Oct. 23. He was born in Ridgebury June 7, 1835, and was in his 73d year. He had not been feeling well for some time but had been around and worked as usual all day. After eating his supper, sitting in his chair, he passed into the sleep that knows no waking in this life. He was united in marriage to Ann Righimire, Sept. 14, 1854, and has occupied his present home since that time. His wife died March 23, 1904. He is survived by one son, William S. Larrison, of Arroyo Grand, Cal., and two grandsons, Leigh and George H. Larrison, also by four brothers, Oscar Larrison of Caton, Lewis Larrison of Van Etten, Levi Larrison of Washington, D. C., and David Larrison of Ridgebury. The funeral was largely attended at the home on Saturday, Rev. George Britton conducted the services. Beautiful hymns were sung and with the sunshine over all he was laid at rest beside his loved ones in the family plot in North cemetery, Ridgebury.

Walter English.

Walter English, aged 17 years, of Monroeton, died at the Packer hospital Wednesday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock. He was taken to the hospital on Aug. 18, and was in a precarious condition, suffering from internal obstruction. It was then thought that he could not live, but he rallied after an operation and was getting along very nicely when again attacked and operated on for a second time. He also rallied from that operation. On Saturday last he was again taken, and his father, James English summoned from Monroeton on Sunday. He would not permit the doctor to operate on the boy the third time, and he grew gradually worse until he died. Deceased was a bright, manly lad, and his demise is a sad blow to his family and friends.

Mrs. Arthur Andrus.

Mrs. Elizabeth Andrus, wife of Arthur Andrus, died at her home in Troy Sunday morning, aged 41 years. She had suffered with constipation for more than a year and spent the past Summer with her daughter, Mrs Arthur Sweet. An anouncement of the death of her sister, Mrs. Edward Palmer, was made less than a week ago. The funeral of Mrs. Andrus was held on Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Rev. R. C. Hebblethwaite will officiate. She is survived by her husband, one son, James, and one daughter, Lydia Sweet.

B. F. Warner.

Benjamin F. Warner died last Friday at 10 o'clock, after a long illness with Bright's disease and other complications, it being seven weeks since he was able to be out of the house. Mr. Warner was born at Mt. Zoar, N. Y., in January, 1834, and grew to manhood in the vicinity of his birth. He served all through the Civil war in Company D, Sixteenth Pennsylvania Cavalry, and was in many fierce battles and was seriously injured by a horse falling on him which caused him intense sufferings the rest of his life. He also received other injuries. He received an honorable discharge in 1865. Mr. Warner was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Brown in 1866, who tenderly and devotedly cast sunshine and cheer around them both for 41 years. The deceased is survived by a wife, one son, William Warner, an engineer on the Erie railroad at Elmira, two daughters, Mrs. Frances Curren of Elmira, and Miss Mabel Warner at home. Mr. Warner was an honorable, upright citizen, a very kind neighbor and a loving and devoted husband and father. The funeral was held on Sunday at the house at 1 o'clock p. m., and at 2 o'clock p. m. at the church at Webb's Mills, where Rev. J. W. Miller of Millerton, officiated. Members of the G. A. R. had charge of the funeral and turned out in a body. The services at the church were solemn and impressive. The remains were tenderly laid at rest in the Webb's Mills cemetery. The bereaved family have the sympathy of all.

W. S. Grace.

W. S. Grace, formerly of Springfield, Bradford county, died at his home in Laporte City, Ia., on Tuesday. Deceased was born Feb. 25, 1821, in Springfield, the eldest son of William and Hannah Salisbury Grace. Addison Grace of Springfield, is the only surviving brother. Deceased was a gentleman highly respected and had a large number of friends in Springfield township.

KILLED BY THE CARS.

Charles H. Fuller, Formerly of Wyalusing, Meets Tragic Fate.

Charles H. Fuller, a former resident of Wyalusing, where he was well and favorably known, was killed by the cars in the Pennsylvania railroad yards at Washington, D. C., Monday night. He has been a resident of Washington for several years, being employed as assistant yardmaster, and was in the performance of his duties when his life was blotted out by the cruel wheels.

Deceased was 35 years of age, and is survived by his mother who lives at Wyalusing, a wife and one child, who were visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Kintner, in Wyalusing, when they received news of the death of the husband and father.

The remains will be brought to Wyalusing. Arrangements for the funeral have not been completed.

Correspondence Omitted.

Owing to a press of other matters, it was impossible to put in type all the correspondence letters received. The following letters were thus necessarily omitted for a lack of time: South Hill, West Warren, Luthers Mills, Orwell, Burmerfield, Orwell Ridge, Rome, Corylland, Bourne, Codding, Mac, Pottersville, Laquin, and Sayles.

Taking a Census.

A census of all the Catholics in the Scranton diocese is now being taken. Rev. J. J. Coroner, pastor of the Church of SS. Peter and Paul, has sent blanks to every Catholic family in his parish to be filled out, giving names of parents and children, ages, etc., and the same thing is being done by every priest in the diocese.

A Woman's Back

Has many aches and pains caused by weaknesses and falling, or other displacement, of the pelvic organs. Other symptoms of female weakness are frequent headache, dizziness, imaginary specks or dark spots floating before the eyes, gnawing sensation in stomach, dragging or bearing down in lower abdominal or pelvic region, disagreeable drains from pelvic organs, faint spells with general weakness.

If any considerable number of the above symptoms are present there is no remedy that will give quicker relief or a more permanent cure than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It has a record of over forty years of cures. It is the most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine known to medical science. It is made of the glyceric extracts of native medicinal roots found in our forests and contains not a drop of alcohol or harmful, or habit-forming drugs. Its ingredients are all printed on the bottle-wrapper and attested under oath as correct.

Every ingredient entering into "Favorite Prescription" has the written endorsement of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice—more valuable than any amount of non-professional testimonials—though the latter are not lacking, having been contributed voluntarily by grateful patients in numbers to exceed the endorsements given to any other medicine extant for the cure of woman's ills.

You cannot afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for this well proven remedy OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, even though the dealer may make a little more profit thereby. Your interest in regaining health is paramount to any selfish interest of his and it is an insult to your intelligence for him to try to palm off upon you a substitute. You know what you want and it is his business to supply the article called for.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original "Little Liver Pills" first put up by old Dr. Pierce over forty years ago, much imitated but never equaled. Little sugar-coated granules—easy to take as candy.

TONSILINE is the greatest, most remedy on earth. Tonsiline cures Sore Throat in all kinds very quickly, and is a positive, never-failing and speedy cure for Sore Mouth, Hoarseness and Quinsy. A small bottle of Tonsiline lasts longer than most any case of SORE THROAT. 25 and 50 cents at all druggists.

Mr. Lilley in Allegheny.

Sunday's Pittsburg Dispatch contained an excellent picture of Hon. Mial E. Lilley of Towanda, and published ver batim his address to the voters of Allegheny county. Carnegie music hall, where the meeting was held, was packed to the doors and the meeting was one of the most enthusiastic held in Western Pennsylvania in years. Major Alexander McDowell of Sharon, Clerk of the National House of Representatives, being the principal speaker of the evening. In its report of the meeting, The Dispatch says: "Mr. Lilley, the third speaker, went back into Pennsylvania politics as far as 1856, giving a resume of its history from that period until the present day. He drew a sharp contrast with the native son of that day who was elected to the Presidency from this state with the chances of Senator Knox. Mr. Lilley spoke with characteristic slow speech, though every word had a ring of earnestness and carried conviction with it."

GENERAL BOOTH RECOVERS.

Salvation Army Head Keeping All His Appointments.

Pittsburg, Oct. 29.—General Booth addressed three large audiences in the Alvin theater, speaking in all about four and a half hours. He has entirely recovered from the illness which detained him in Chicago for a few days. He proceeded to Washington, where he dined with the president and lectured.

General Booth lectures at Baltimore Wednesday and at Philadelphia Thursday and begins his final meetings in New York Saturday, speaking in the New Amsterdam theater three times next Sunday.

At the Salvation Army headquarters on Fourteenth street no fear is felt that the general will miss one appointment.

Socialists Arrested in Seattle.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 29.—Eight socialistic speakers and a like number of sympathizers were arrested here for speaking on the streets. The arrests came as a result of the defiance programme of the Socialists of Seattle, who have arranged for their speakers to appear on the streets every night and attempt to hold public meetings. Mayor Moore has declared that he will not allow the street meetings. The Socialists in turn have secured about forty speakers and will continue the meetings as long as the volunteer martyrs last.

Worshiped a Hindoo Idol.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Occultism figured extensively in the testimony given in the suit of Mrs. Adah L. Taylor Carus to set aside the will of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth L. Taylor. Mrs. Emma A. Russell, 427 West Delaware avenue, Toledo, O., testified that Mrs. Taylor worshiped an idol given her by Dr. Lalan, a Hindoo, who came to Chicago in 1893 as a delegate to the congress of religions.

Cannon Boom Launched.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Speaker Joseph G. Cannon's official campaign for the presidential nomination was started at a meeting of fourteen Illinois Republican congressmen at the Auditorium. It was decided to place Speaker Cannon in the race whether he acquiesced or not, but when the speaker was called in at the end of the three hour conference he threw up his hands and said: "Well, boys will be boys. Do as you please."

WHAT IS A NEWSPAPER?

Editor of the Binghamton Republican Answers Important Question.

Commenting on a case in which the question arose as to what a newspaper really is, The American Press suggested that it would like to receive suggestions from its readers on that question.

Harry N. Gardner, city editor of the Binghamton Daily Republican, gives the following definition of a newspaper:

"A newspaper is the thing which every person in town knows how to run except the editor. It is what should be an oven for 'roasts' on every one except yourself, members of your family and a few of your particular friends, for whom it should be a sweet scented boquet of praise.

"It is a promoter of profanity if it is not on the front porch when you get down in the morning, and what you tell the man who works on it isn't fit to go into a decent person's home.

"It is what the young man who borrows it from the saloon bar 'kicks' about because it contains only one sporting page, and which the woman tells her neighbor when she takes it back is not worth subscribing for because it has but one page devoted to fashions and making currant jam.

"It is what the merchant threatens to pull his adv. out of because he cannot have the run of the paper and what the old subscriber declares is going to the demnition bowwows because it is getting so that nothing but advertising can get a position in it any more.

"It is what you want to see the editor to keep your name out of as soon as you have settled with the police justice on the morning after and to get your name into as soon as the cards are issued two weeks before.

"It is what is just too horrid and inquisitive for anything, and 'please keep my name out' when the reporter wishes to know about the bridge whist club and which is the mean old sheet that never gets anything right when your name is omitted from 'among those present.'

"It is what no one ever forgets to condemn for its mistakes and never remembers to praise for the good it accomplishes.

"It is a subsidized organ when it fails to tell about the millionaire's wife running away with the coachman and a libelous yellow rag when it reports your police court trial for killing your neighbor's rooster.

"It is what is difficult to print so as to suit everybody and which would be nothing but eight pages of blank white paper with a headline if it were published so as to suit everybody."

GOES ON THE STUMP.

Hon. Mial E. Lilley of Towanda, Will Travel With Sheatz Party.

Republican Chairman Andrews has detailed Hon. Mial E. Lilley of Towanda to join the party of John O. Sheatz, Republican candidate for state treasurer, now on a campaign tour of the state. Mr. Lilley spoke at a big mass meeting held in Allegheny City on Saturday evening of last week, as did Mr. Sheatz and the other members of the party.

Mr. Lilley has an enviable reputation as a public speaker, and the choosing of him to accompany the color bearer, Mr. Sheatz, is a fine compliment to his ability.

A UNITED PARTY.

The Republican party of Pennsylvania for the first time in several years, presents a united front to their old enemy, the Democratic party. Past dissensions are forgotten and united in purpose, and with closed ranks, independents and regulars will go to the polls on Tuesday next to vote for John O. Sheatz for state treasurer.

The Lincoln party organization very properly has given unqualified endorsement to the candidacy of Mr. Sheatz and independent Republican voters and newspapers all over this state have done the same thing. As illustrating this it is only necessary to quote from two of the leading newspapers of the state, The Press, and The North American, of Philadelphia, both of which have been earnest and consistent advocates of the independent movement in this state. The Press, commenting on the attitude of the independent voters, said:

"They have been given in the main the reform legislation they wanted. They have been given a candidate who is entirely acceptable to them. They have accomplished the reforms they undertook aid secured the improvements in the party administration which they desired. One who stood with them for the most of the important reforms accomplished is the Republican candidate for state treasurer, and they rejoice at the opportunity to support him with their votes. There is nothing for Pennsylvania Republicans to split upon this year unless it would be to oblige the Democrats. This they refuse to do, and a united party will give John O. Sheatz a crowning victory next week."

Discussing this same matter, The North American speaks in no uncertain tone:

"The independent Republicans in this state by platforms, professions and by reason of their whole history are morally committed to his candidacy. He measures up to the highest standard of their expressed demands. He is the choice in convention of the delegates of the people in opposition to the people's political bosses. Opposition to him means stulification of the independent movement.

"The independent Republican who fails to support Sheatz will give color to the charge that he is not sincere in protestation that he desires to support the Republican ticket whenever the nominee enables him to reconcile that support with his conscience."

This, of course, is not very satisfactory to the Democrats who welcome independent Republican movements mainly for the assistance it may give in securing places and power for Democrats. This is a natural point of view for them but independent Republicans, who are Republicans as well as independents, are not willing to play the roll of assistants to the Democrats. And they will, therefore, with all good Republicans, vote for John O. Sheatz next Tuesday.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

Bradford county is a little commonwealth of itself and many important cases are tried in our courts every year in which the district attorney is the sole representative of the people. It goes without saying, then, that the county attorneyship is an important office. The Republican candidate for the office, is H. K. Mitchell, of Troy. He is a young lawyer of much abillity, has made for himself an enviable reputation and is in every way excellently qualified to discharge the duties pertaining to the postion. He has no opposition, the Democrats having failed to find anyone to run against him. He will receive a large Democratic vote and surely deserves the vote of every Republican in the county. See that he gets yours.

It may be worth remembering that when a splinter has been driven deeply into the hand it can be extracted by steam. Nearly fill a wide mouth bottle with very hot water, place the injured part over the mouth and press it slightly. The suction thus produced will draw the flesh down and in a minute or two the steam will extract the splinter and inflammation together.

We hear that the bureau of chemistry of the national agricultural department is about to supplement the efforts of the Pennsylvania dairy and food division to protect consumers from poisoned California fruit by the submission of a report which will make public some startling facts.

What the Republicans cause wants on Tuesday next is a majority, and majorities are made of votes. Go to the polls. Let every Republican in the county do his part in making the majority. Tuesday of next week is the day to do it.

SHEATZ HAS SCORED

Nominee For Treasurer Has Made a Hit With the People.

CHAMPION OF THE SCHOOLS

Generally Commended For Successful Advocacy of An Additional Four Million Dollars For the Cause of Education.

[Special Correspondence.]

Harrisburg, Oct. 29.

John O. Sheatz, the Republican nominee for state treasurer, is about winding up a tour of the state in which he has scored at every place he has been.

He has shown himself to be a vote-getter. While he has none of the gifts of the trained orator with which to electrify an audience, he possesses to a remarkable degree an ability to impress everyone who hears him with his absolute sincerity of purpose and courage to carry out every pledge he has made.

Champion of Public Schools.

Probably no other act in the official career of Mr. Sheatz contributed more to his popularity than his advocacy of increased appropriations to the public schools. As chairman of the appropriation committee of the house of representatives, Mr. Sheatz made a valient and successful fight in favor of raising the already large sums appropriated to education, and in his visits to the various counties in his present tour Mr. Sheatz has been complimented upon the result of his labors at Harrisburg in this direction.

The Republican party of Pennsylvania has a grand record in its fostering and protecting influence in the cause of the common schools.

The statistics show that since 1887 the enormous sum of $119,100,000 has been appropriated by Pennsylvania legislatures dominated by the Republican party, an amount many times larger than that appropriated for like purposes by any state in the Union for public school purposes.

The appropriation for the years 1887-88 was $2,000,000; for 1889-90 it was $4,000,000, and for each two years from that time until this year, with one exception, the appropriation was $11,000,000, the exception being in 1902-01, when the amount was $10,000,000.

When the legislature met this year Mr. Sheatz was among the potential factors in a movement to provide even more liberally for the schools, and with the hearty co-operation of the influential leaders of the Republican party this agitation was a fruitful one. The sum of $4,000,000 was added to the state school fund, raising the grand total to the unprecedented appropriation of $15,000,000 for the next two years.

This amount does not include the $6,500,000 specially set aside for school purposes from the local taxes collected in the city of Philadelphia, nor the large amounts raised locally in other counties.

The money included in the state appropriation to the schools is allotted to the different counties in proportion to the number of children of school age, each county receiving its pro rata share. In nearly all of the counties the amount received from the state has proved amply sufficient to meet all of the requirements of the public schools, so that in such cases it is not necessary to apply any of the money received from local taxation.

"I want to see the day," said Mr. Sheatz a few nights ago, "when the state will provide every penny of the money needed for educational purposes. The aim of the Republican party has been in that direction, and I know that the continued success of Republicanism in Pennsylvania means the accomplishment of that end.

"I shall certainly continue to do all in my power to have ample money appropriated to place the public schools of our state upon a solid and practical basis in every county of the state."

An evangelist who has been at work out in Chicago has been saying that money does more to keep men out of the church than whiskey. He excoriates rich men who are also without principle in scorching terms. But there is another side to this contention. If money has been the instrumental cause of many evils it has likewise brought many blessings to pass. Money is a curse if be abused or misused, but if it be applied to philanthropic or religious ends it is a mighty factor in the world's civilization and in the increase of human happiness.

Said the immortal Lincoln, "Let reverence for the laws be taught in schools, in seminaries and in colleges; let it be written in primers, spelling books and almanacs; let it be preached from the pulpit, proclaimed in legislative halls and enforced in courts of justice, and, in short, let it become the political religion of the nation; and let the old and the young, the rich and the poor, the grave and the gay of all sexes and tongues and colors and conditions, sacrifice unceasingly upon its altars."

The Republican majority in Bradford county when there is no fuss in the family is something to make the enemy sick. Fortunately the enemy—that portion of him that lives in Bradford county—is sick most of the time. Give him a dose on Tuesday next that will last him a year.

Stay-at-home voters don't count. The man who goes to the polls and registers his choice is worth a car load of good-intentional fellows who "haven't got time."

HIGH-CLASS FEMALE EDUCATION

We are gratified to learn that Linden Hall, that old and excellent school for girls, has taken a new departure by adding several important courses to its usual curriculum. The one we allude to is home economics, including cooking and the kindred subjects pertaining to the proper administration of the ordinary household. The home is the woman's kingdom. One of her own making is the purpose of education also. Time was when young women learned all this in their own homes from their mothers, so that when the Knight from Spain came along in search of her she was ready to obey the call, fully equipped to assume all the duties of a competent housewife.

Unfortunately, those days are, to a great degree, things of the past. The mother of today fails to remember her own home education. She does not strive to teach her daughters as she herself was taught. She prefers to make a slave of herself in order that her daughters may shine in the circles of fashionable life. Pretty hands now count for more than all the household sciences. To be able to conjugate a French verb is of more importance in her eyes than baking a loaf of bread or cooking beefsteak.

But what, after all, do the fancy accomplishments dished out at Vassar, Smith or Cornell mean to the average American woman when she becomes the ruler of a household? If she does not forget all the fancy accomplishments she tried to acquire at school she at least finds out that she has no present use for them, and might as well never have looked into a French grammar or tried her hand with pallet and brush. If she is a daughter of wealth, who is not intended to look after a household, of course it does not matter much. Such care little for home at best, the butterfly life of fashion being, owing to their training, more than the home.

Read over the course of studies held up at the fashionable schools. They are glittering geenralities. They look imposing, but the little impression they make on the average girl is all cast away when school is left behind, and, so far as the real education of life is concerned, they are stranded and helpless. Does any one know of a home where the highly educated wife spends her time in discussing disputed questions in philosophy, in ecology, histology and psychology with her husband, children or any one else? They have long before been dropped out of sight, and the sensible matron finds more sensible enjoyment in looking after her household affairs.

The flood of immigration contiues to swell. Last month the arrivals numbered 98,696—enough to populate a city the size of Harrisburg. During that period only 870 persons were debarred, showing that the restrictions now in force are effective only as to the keeping out of persons of undesirable character, and do not to any appreciable extent reduce the numerical inflow. The Harrisburg Telegraph says imigration is one of the great problems ahead of the government of the United States, and that's about right.

The time will surely come when every state in the union will have a criminal code under which first offenders will be given every opportunity to reform permanently while chronic criminals will be permanently removed from temptation and from the opportunity to harm the community and the individual citizen. Many a young fellow gets caught in the meshes of the law in a moment of reckless yielding to temptation. If given the opportunity to make good he shows his gratitude by conducting himself in an orderly manner. On the other hand when the officers of the state are convinced that a criminal has no intention of obeying law the right thing to do with him is to shut him up for life in some institution where he can be put to work.

The simplest and plainest laws of health are outraged every hour of the day by the average mortal. Did Adam smoke? Did Eve wear corsets? Did Solomon chew tobacco? Did Ruth chew gum? Did the children of Israel make for a beer garden after crossing the Red Sea? Did Rebecca eat gum drops and ice cream and call for soda water? Adam was first made perfect from head to heel. How long would he remain so after eating a mince pie before going to bed? Suppose he had slept in a bedroom five by seven with the windows down, the door shut, and two dogs under the bed? Suppose Eve had laced herself up in a corset, put on tight shoes, sat up all hours of night eating her fill of trash and sizzled her hair? When you come to think of the way a man misbehaves himself, you can only wonder he ever lived to get there. Verily, the average man behaves as if he were a little better than a fool.

Vote, vote, vote on Tuesday next.

SOUNDING A WARNING

Republicans Cautioned of Danger in Over-Confidence.

MUST GET OUT THE VOTE

Even a Reduction In the Majority Would Be Hailed as a Victory By the Enemies of the Party of Protection.

[Special Correspondence.]

Philadelphia, Oct. 29.

Predictions of a sweeping victory for the Republican party in Pennsylvania at next Tuesday's election are all based upon reports from the various counties that the rank and file of the organization is going to get out a large percentage of the Republican vote.

Much will depend, however, upon the activity of the party vigilantes, and warning messages are being sent out from Philadelphia headquarters to leave nothing undone to get Republicans to the polls.

While former independents are proclaiming their loyalty to the Republican nominee, the party leaders appreciate the danger that lurks in the feeling of security that exists among Republican committeemen. They realize that the Democrats are looking forward confidently to next year's national election and are going to poll a big vote to encourage the members of their party to line up for the coming presidential contest.

No State "Issues" This Year.

There have been absolutely no state "issues" developed by the present campaign in Pennsylvania.

Governor Stuart's administration, following the action of the Republican majority in the legislature, brought about indictments in the state capitol cases and removed that issue from the political canvass, and the record of John O. Sheatz in public and private life prevented criticism of the Republican candidate from the outset of the campaign.

Upon every hand, however, the political contest in this state has been regarded as the skirmish of next year's presidential battle, and Republicans familiar with the situation are concerned regarding the result of the balloting on Tuesday next.

They are fearful that a feeling of over-confidance will lead to a laxity among the party workers and that proper efforts will not be put forth to get the voters to the polls.

"If Pennsylvania is to take her proper place at the head of the procession of Republican states on Tuesday next," said Colonel Wesley R. Andrews, chairman of the Republican state committee today, "the Republican voters must be alert. They must go to the polls and register their continued adherence to the principles and policies of the party, and by so doing emphasize the sentiment of their great state in favor of the party of progress and prosperity. The Democrats are going to put their best efforts into the work of getting their men out to vote, and in order that they may record one of their old-time ringing majorities, the Republicans must be wideawake and active from the hour of the opening of the polls until the last ballot shall be deposited. They must take nothing for granted, but act upon the principle that a battle is never won until it is over and the enemy is captured or routed.

"Pennsylvania is the greatest industrial state in the Union, and Democratic triumph, which a reduced Republican majority would mean, would be disastrous to wage earners and capitalists alike.

Must Not Falter.

"If Pennsylvania should falter on Tuesday next, the enemies of the protective tariff would have reason to be elated, and they would herald the result of the election as an indication that the so-called tariff reformers are growing in strength in our state, and that the 'Iowa idea' for a scaling down of the tariff is spreading even into Pennsylvania, the very citidal of protection.

"The consequence of such a state of affairs would be illustrated by a cessation of all industrial enterprises within our borders, with the inevitable result that the workingman and the farmers, the mechanics and the mill owners would in the end bear the brunt of the disaster.

"I sincerely trust that the Republican voters of Pennsylvania will not be deceived by those who affect to see no danger in Republican indifference, but that they will go to work at once and discharge their full duty to the party and to their state."

Call to Clubmen.

President R. P. Habgood, of the State League of Republican Clubs, supplementing the call to arms of Colonel Andrews, has issued an address in which, among other things, he says:

"This is not an off-year for Republicanism, it is, on the other hand, a vital one, and the majority recorded for the Hon. John O. Sheatz will serve as a glaring guide post to the Republicanism of the entire United States.

"A small majority will point to indifference on the part of the Keystone state to tariff revision and Republican national policies next year. A rousing, record-breaking and old-fashioned majority will be a bulwark to the policy of standing pat on the tariff and an inspiration to Republican success throughout the country next year, when we all earnestly hope to centre the eyes of our sister states upon Pennsylvania's candidate for the presidency."

Tuesday next is the appointed time. Be at the polls early and get in your vote.

Twelve states will elect officers next Tuesday.

PECULIAR ACCIDENT.

Man Fell in Road and Was Burned to Death Near Noxen.

Jim Johnson of Dallas, who met with a painful accident on Saturday night, died at his home Monday evening at 5 o'clock. He left Dallas at 4 o'clock to visit some friends at a lumber camp near Noxen, Wyoming county, and borrowing a lantern he started for the camp but in some way he fell the lantern breaking and setting fire to his clothing, and burning everything but his shoes and collar from his body.

He was found on Sunday by some lumbermen coming over the mountain. He was employed by W. T. Daddow, blacksmith at Dallas, and quit work at noon Saturday to visit Noxen. He is survived by his mother, step father and three brothers.

Coroner Sued.

Coroner James Stein of Lackawanna county, has been sued for $500 by the representatives of the estate of Elizabeth F. Hoffman. It is alleged by the plaintiff that Dr. Stein borrowed the money on March 28, 1906, from Miss Hoffman, his fiancee. The latter was drowned in Lake Winola last Summer by the upsetting of a boat. The boat was close to the shore and Dr. Stein was about to get into it when it turned and Miss Hoffman was thrown into the water and drowned. Miss Hoffman was a trained nurse.

Funeral of Ralph Keating.

The funeral of Ralph Keating was held at the home of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Winslow Keating, Second street Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock and was very largely attended. The floral offerings were numerous and very beautiful. The pallbearers were John Crimmins, Frank Bolan, Leo Corbett, Joseph Keating, Thomas Carroll and James Carron, young friends of the deceased. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery.

Scranton Man's Disappearance.

John M. Edwards of Scranton, secreary of the Ontario society in that city, and a prominent business man, who disappeared from home two weeks ago, has not communicated in any way with his relatives or friends and no trace of him has been found. He left the house telling his wife he was going to get a suit pressed. The last seen of him he was boarding a train bound for Buffalo.

Funeral of Lyman S. Chubbuck.

The remains of the late Lyman S. Chubbuck arrived in Towanda from Sunbury Tuesday and were taken to the home of M. E. Chubbuck on Huston street. The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon at one o'clock, in the Orwell M. E. church; interment will be made in the cemetery at that place.

"He will fill the position with credit and ability and will give the people an honest and capable administration." That's the sentiment of both sides, or all sides, of the candidates for office on both sides or on all political sides. Let us hope all hands are right.

Votes are what count on election day. Now is the time to talk Republicanism and Tuesday next will be the time to vote it.

Bakers say they must make smaller loaves for five cents because of the high price of flour. It is a strange condition. The people need the bread and the bakers knead it, but both need the "dough," says The Doylestown Inteligencer. The case of the baker, however, is twofold—he both needs and kneads the "dough," so it would seem that his position is the strongest.

The rascals are putting up a great howl against the President. But they know very well that it is their own wanton defiance of law that has put justice upon their track.

Legal Blanks at this office.

The London newspapers are freeing their minds about the New York panic. The free advice given to the United States is that it must punish its scoundrels. If British investors in American railroad enterprises could understand that the government will punish scoundrels they might feel easier in their minds when they make investments.

In these days, when candidates are so thick that you can't shy a stone without hitting one, it is well to remember, brethren, says The New York Herald, that while many are "mentioned" few are chosen.

MURDER IN WYOMING COUNTY.

Man Waylaid and Beaten So Terribly That He Died.

Coroner L. E. Meade of Tunkhannock, was called to Noxen on Sunday to hold an inquest on the body of Charles Schenck, who was found in the road with injuries to the abdomen, which caused peritonitis, from which he afterwards died. The man was in an unconscious condition when found, and continued so until death. From the marks on his body it is supposed that he was set upon on the road and kicked and beaten into insensibility. A post mortem examination was held by physicians but the inquest was adjourned until Wednesday in order to procure the attendance of witnesses.

Gillett Baptist Church Roll Call.

The roll call of the Gillett Baptist church was held in the church Oct. 27, at 10:30 a. m. Owing to the inclement weather there was only 40 out of 135 members who responded to their names. It was a very interesting meeting showing energy on the part of those present. In the afternoon there were preaching services, conducted by Rev. Mr. Porter of Alba. His discourse was taken from Luke 9:13, "Give Ye Them to Eat," which was very impressive and highly appreciated by those present. After which there were reports from several committees, viz.: Christian Endeavor, by Miss Hattie Berry; choir, Mrs. D. H. Aird; Bible school, Rev. E B. Dwyer; Band Lady Workers, Mrs. Dr. Kiersted. General report by the clerk, G. O. Turk, showing the church to be in the best condition since its foundation. Much credit is due Rev. E. B. Dwyer, who has worked so faithfully for the up building of the church. The memorial services in memory of all the dead in the cemetery, will be held Nov. 3, at 10:30 a. m.

Conservative statisticians estimate the majority of Mr. Sheatz, Republican candidate for state treasurer, at 150,000. The lack of Democratic enthusiasm is not surprising under the circumstances.—Scranton Tribune.

The wedding of Miss Laura Martha Cornell, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Cornell, to John Childs of Morris Run, took place Thursday evening at 6 o'clock, at the Cornell home in Troy. The bride's pastor, Rev. Robert C. Heblethwaite, officiated, using the ring ceremony. The bride's gown was white silk mull over white silk, and her going away gown was brown broadcloth. The immediate families only of the contracting parties were present. A collation followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Childs will bake their home in Morris Run, where the groom has a good position with the coal company. The well wishes of her many friends will go with the bride to her new home.

The supervisors of Canton township having refused to lay a private road across the lands of Elizabeth Coons to the house of G. F. Williams, a review was had on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week by Messrs. F. G. Bailey and Barney Perry, supervisors of LeRoy township, and Eli Williams, supervisor of Troy township, with J. T. McCollom as surveyor, and a road was granted as prayed for. Subsequently the parties settled by Mrs. Coons selling some seven acres to G. F. Williams, giving him an opportunity to lay such road as he may desire. Considerable litigation has been had between the parties, and the settlement closes all to their mutual advantage and satisfaction. Stone & Brooks and J. T. McCollom represented Mr. Williams, and Sechrist & Hickok represented Mrs. Coons in the suit tried before arbitrators concerning the right to this road last July.

An important coal deal was recently closed in Williamsport by the recording of a lease from Mrs. Anna Weightman Walker of Philadelphia, America's richest woman, to Z. T. Eberach of New York, leasing all the coal under 8,000 acres of land in Pine township, Lycoming county, operations toward the mining of which must begin within 60 days from date of lease. Mr. Eberach immediately transferred the lease to the Pennsylvania Smokeless Fuel company, the corporation under whose direction the coal is to be mined. It is stipulated in the lease that in 1909 there must be 100,000 tons of coal shipped, and in all the years thereafter, until the veins are exhausted, up to 200,000 tons a year. The coal is bituminous. There is now no railroad reaching the lands in question. Whether transportation facilities are to be had by an extension of the New York Central tracks or over the much talked about P., B. & E. railroad, is a question many people are trying to solve. Believers in the early completion of the P., B. & E. think the coal is going to the eastern market over that road, and there would seem to be good ground for the belief. James Kerr, president of the Smokeless Fuel company, was in Clearfield the other day and talked quite freely of the line of railroad that is to be built across the state from Pittsburg to Binghamton connecting at both points with established roads. He says that work on the Pittsburg and Clearfield, the Franklin and Clearfield, and the P., B. and E. will soon be pushed vigorously.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY SEAT.

BUSINESS CHANGE.

Peter J. Allen Sells His Park Restaurant to William E. Osborne.

Peter J. Allen has sold his Park restaurant to William E. Osborne, the taurant to William E. Osborne Monday. This restaurant and saloon is the oldest and best known place in Towanda, having been established 18 years ago by Allen & Kendrick. Mr. Allen purchased the interest of John Kendrick a few years ago, since which time he has conducted the business. Under the management of Mr. Allen the business has been conducted in a first class manner and is known as one of the best managed, most carefully conducted and popular licensed places in the county, and as a result enjoys a high class and extensive patronage. During the 18 years in which he has been in business, Mr. Allen has been absent but one Saturday night, having given his whole and undivided attention to the place. He will enjoy a well earned rest for a few months.

Mr. Osborne, the new proprietor, is from Windham, having moved to Towanda three years ago. For the past year he has been employed by James Bennet, the wholesale liquor dealer. He will continue the policy of Mr. Allen and will undoubtedly enjoy the same liberal patronage.

THE BANNER POSTOFFICE.

More Mail Passes Through Towanda Office Than Any Other in County.

A larger number of pieces are mailed at the Towanda postoffice each week than in any of Uncle Sam's stations in the county, as is shown by the figures given out after the official count from Oct. 12 to 19. Towanda comes first in Bradford county with 19,346 pieces, Sayre second with 16,708, and Athens third, with 15,232.

During the week in which the count was being made, the clerks made record of every piece of matter mailed at the Towanda office. Following are the exact figures in the different classes of mail:

Letters, first class	8935
Post cards	3074
Papers, pound rates	4454
Papers, free in county	1854
Papers, second class	196
First class packages	25
Third class packages	333
Fourth class packages	120
Franked matter	21
Penalty matter	354
Total	19,346

Funeral of Dr. C. K. Ladd.

The funeral of the late Dr. Charles K. Ladd was held at the family home on York avenue Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and was very largely attended, there being a large concourse of friends present to pay their last respects to the deceased, a man whom in life they esteemed and respected. Rev. Edwin A. Gernant, rector of Christ Church, conducted the services which were very impressive. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful. The pallbearers were H. C. Porter, C. L. Tracy, O. A. Baldwin, Dr. S. M. Woodburn, Frank Montanye, and William Little, neighbors and life long friends of the departed. Interment was made in Oak Hill cemetery.

Drislane vs. Haines.

The case of R. H. Drislane of Sayre, formerly of Towanda, and C. A. Haines of Sayre, has by the agreement of the parties been submitted to arbitrators. Some time ago Mr. Drislane built a porch on the residence of Dr. Haines and there is some disagreement about the way the job was to be done and suit resulted. Wednesday the men picked two arbitrators, H. Pittsley and Lewis Cramer, and these two will choose a third. On Friday afternoon they will meet at the office of Justice Carey, in Sayre, and hear the evidence in the case.

They Admire the Green.

First ward business men certainly admire the green, the "long green," and also that same green, emblemic of Old Erin's Isle. The front of the Carroll block was first painted green, then the Pyne block was treated likewise and now Landlord Joseph Ochs takes a hand in the game and is having his well known hostelry dressed the same. The front of the hotel is being touched up in a pretty shade of green which will add much to the appearance of the building.

Relatives Entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Albro, at their home in Monroeton, on Thursday, pleasantly entertained ten of their relatives at dinner. The following were present and enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Albro: Mrs. Ellen Powers of Canton, Mrs. W. S. Reynolds of Potterville, Mrs. Mariah Cranmer, Mrs. A. Ford, Mrs. Nora Lindley, and Mrs. Lloyd Gale and children of Powell, Mrs. Roy Harney and children of Towanda, Mrs. Robert Cranmer and daughter of Monroeton.

Crushed to Death Between Logs.

John Johnson, head sawyer on the night crew of the Goodyear Lumber company's sawmill at Galeton, was crushed to death between two logs while at work at 4 o'clock Tuesday morning. He had been employed by the Goodyears for 25 years, and was one of the most expert sawyers in that section, and was a most valued and highly respected citizen. A widow and three children survive him.

Quarterly Meeting of Grangers.

The fourth quarterly meeting of Pomona grange, No. 23, will meet with Wyalusing grange, No. 58, Nov. 21 and 22, 1907.

ARE ENTITLED TO PAY.

School Directors Who Attend the Annual Meeting of County Association.

School directors who are faithful to their duties are entitled to pay when they leave their various occupations and attend the annual meetings of the county association of school directors. There are many directors who are not able financially to attend at their own expense of time and money. The act signed by the governor, providing for paying the directors $2 per day for two days and mileage at the rate of three cents per mile while attending these meetings, is therefore a just law.

The annual meetings of the county directors are for the purpose of broadening the minds of the directors and increasing their usefulness as school managers. The man who does not take enough interest in the schools under his charge to attend the meetings of directors is unfit to serve in that capacity, and the man who is desirous of improving his capacity to perform his duties should be encouraged to do so by having his expenses paid when he attends the directors' gatherings.

The annual meeting of the Bradford County Directors' association will be held in Towanda on Feb. 20-21.

Now a Full Fledged Attorney.

John M. Carroll, one of Towanda's best known young men, Thursday was admitted to practice law in the several courts of Bradford county. Mr. Carroll first registered as a law student in the office of the late Col. Edward Overton studying under the direction of I. McPherson, Esq. Later he engaged in business and for several years was away from Towanda. In January, 1906, he again took up the study of law registering as a student in the office of William Maxwell, Esq., where he finished his studies. Mr. Carroll has every qualification for the making of an able attorney, and for him is presaged a bright and promising future.

Munson Will Try and Be Good.

John Munson, colored, after a few days' rest in the county jail, was arraigned before Justice Meredith Saturday morning on the charge of assault and abusing his wife. The 'Squire delivered a lecture to Munson and said he would give him one more chance to behave himself. The hearing was postponed until Nov. 15, until which time Munson will have his liberty. If he goes to work, provides for and treats his family right he will be discharged, but should he not, he will be given one year in the county jail. Munson has promised to be good.

Cases To Be Tried.

The following important cases will be heard by Judge Fanning in court to be held in Troy this week: James McKee vs. Northern Central Railway company; J. T. McCollom, vs. Davies & Davies, Henry Streeter; Frank Worden vs. John Cowen, defendant's appeal; J. T. McCollom, Stone & Brooks; E. J. Cleveland, administrator of Dr. L. B. Smith vs. Sidney Utter, defendant's appeal; Stone & Brooks, J. T. McCollom; Clarence W. Rockwell vs. The Township; Edwin M. Dunham, vs. H. K. Mitchell.

Words of Cheer.

Rev. J. J. Coroner, from the altar in the Church of SS. Peter and Paul, Sunday morning, spoke words of cheer to his congregation. Father Coroner took occasion to urge his people to be hopeful for the future of Towanda, saying he would guarantee something good, industrially, for the borough. The reverend gentleman has taken a great interest in the welfare of Towanda, and his words of cheer were indeed good to hear.

Bauman Indicted.

William C. Bauman, the wealthy shoe manufacturer of Honesdale, who is named as correspondent in the divorce proceedings filed by Banker H. Z. Russell against his wife, was indicted on a charge of adultery by the grand jury of Wayne county, Friday. His case will probably be placed on the lists for the next term of criminal court.

Maynard—Smith.

W. B. Maynard of Rummerfield, and Miss Minnie Smith of Denton, Texas, were united in marriage on Wednesday, Oct. 24, at 3 p. m., at the residence of Elder E. H. Dutton of the First Baptist church of Buffalo. They will make their home in Rummerfield.

Three Piers Completed.

Three piers for the James street bridge are completed, and two more half finished. Contractor Whalen expects to have the piers all completed by Dec. 1.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Despondent and Broken in Health, Charles Mitchell Cuts Throat.

After weeks of suffering from insomnia and illness, Charles Mitchell made an unsuccessful attempt to end his misery with a razor at the home of his brother-in-law, John Coleman, Jr., on Ward avenue yesterday morning on Ward avenue Monday morning about 10 o'clock. He succeeded in severing the windpipe, but prompt surgical attention by Dr. T. Ben Johnson and Dr. Charles M. Woodburn, saved his life. The unfortunate young man was taken to the Packer hospital on train No. 1, Monday afternoon, and if complications do not arise, it is believed he will recover.

The case is of a very pathetic nature. Charles Mitchell is a young man 29 years of age, and until illness robbed him of his health and strength had a very promising future. Eleven years ago he had the misfortune to lose one of his legs by the cars, and has been compelled to go through life with an artificial limb. Not discouraged by this misfortune, he learned the art of telegraphy and became an expert in that line, holding several important positions. Six years ago he fell ill with typhoid fever, and for weeks lay at the point of death. Since that time he has never regained his strength and to add to his enfeebled condition he has suffered from extreme nervousness and loss of sleep, being a constant sufferer with insomnia. About a year ago his father took ill and during the long weeks before his death, Charles cared for him, devoting his entire time, and never leaving the side of the parent.

The unfortunate young man of late brooded over his misfortunes, and feeling that the ambition of his life to be strong enough to follow his vocation and live with his mother in a little home of their own, could never be realized, he determined to end it all. Yesterday morning while alone in the kitchen of the Coleman home, he procured a razor, slashed his throat, inflicting a terrible wound, and completely severing the windpipe. Fortunately the jugular vein and arteries were not severed and his chances for recovery are very bright. After coming out from under the influence of the chloroform, the unfortunate young man told his relatives that he felt he was in the way, that he believed it was best for him to die and that he hoped God would forgive him for he simply could not help it.

Cupid Keeps Up His Good Work.

Dan Cupid, that little irresistable God of love, is keeping up his good work in this county, as is evidenced by the marriage certificate docket in the office of the register and recorder. Four permits to wed were granted yesterday, the following persons being named on the documents: H. C. Joyce of Ithaca, and Eva Ackley of Monroeton; Louis Ingerick of Canton, and Nettie Carl of Leolyn; Frank Browning of Spring Hill and Susie Palmer of Camptown; Nathaniel Brague and Anna P. Sergeant, both of Lamoka; Leon Bixby and H. Stila Stanton, both of Leona; William Ross and Edith L. Hagerman, both of Syracuse, N. Y.

To Have New Ritual.

The Independent Order of Odd Fellows is to have a new ritual for use in subordinate lodges. This change was decided upon in one of the secret annual meetings of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. Minor changes have been made by the Sovereign body from time to time in the ritual now in use, and finally a few years since a committee was appointed to incorporate these changes and prepare an entirely new ritual. The new work will be ready for distribution by May 1 of next year.

Reception for Rev. and Mrs. Houghton

The congregation of the First Methodist Episcopal church Wednesday evening in the church parlors held an informal reception in honor of their beloved pastor, Rev. O. A. Houghton, D.D., and Mrs. Houghton. The hours were from 8 to 10 during which time the congregation and a large number of people from other congregations had a splendid time. A musical program was rendered and light refreshments served which added to the enjoyments of the evening.

Warning From Black.

A correspondent writing from Black says "As the hunting season is open there seems to be a report of a scarcity of the light weight game, but not in the big game, however. Report has it that a black bear is making its headquarters in the vicinity of Black, but would say to the nimrods when hunting for bruin, be careful not to shoot the neighbor's calf."

Two Real Estate Deals.

F. C. Layman of Terry township, has sold his farm to Furman Johnson; consideration $4,000. Horace Hoover of Rummerfield, has purchased the house and lot of Victor Post on Norway Ridge in Terry township.

Two Marriage Licenses.

Two marriage licenses were issued by Register and Recorder Dewey on Saturday. Sterling J. Brown of Black was granted a permit to wed Geraldine L. Post of Shores Hill, and Henry Sharer of Stevensville, was supplied with a document which privileges him of uniting in marriage with Grace Chaffee of East Terry.

The pupils of the West Wysox school will hold an oyster supper Hallowe'en at the home of Mrs. Clara Lewis. Proceeds to purchase athletic goods for the school.

JUDGE HAD NO MERCY.

Sentenced Scranton Youth to 12 Years for Ruining Girl.

Carl Howe of Scranton, was sentenced Tuesday to 12 years and six months' imprisonment and a fine of $500 for ruining a young girl.

In pronouncing sentence Judge Newsombe said that he had known the young man all his life and had known his family, but it had been conclusively proved that he lured this girl from paths of right when she was but 14, a motherless child, and had continued relations with her for two years.

Before she was 15 he had taught her the use of drugs and the judge considered him a menace to homes where there are daughters and commented on the fact that this young man was the only person who sat unmoved through the pathetic scenes of trial.

The girl, Madeline Paterson, is very beautiful and belongs to an excellent family.

Back With the Bigamist.

Sheriff Wenger of Port Clinton, O., left Towanda Saturday morning with LeRoy Clifford, the Sayre man who is wanted in Ohio to answer to the charge of bigamy. Sheriff Wenger had to remain in Pennsylvania a week longer than he expected, the requisition papers being delayed in transmission and when they reached him only the name of Governor Harris of Ohio, was attached. Mr. Wenger took the document to Harrisburg secured the signature of Governor Stuart, came back to Towanda for Clifford and left on the first train for Ohio. At Sayre, two of Clifford's little children were at the station to bid him good bye, but the wife whom he betrayed was not present.

Suspects Brought to Jail.

Chief of Police Ennes and Asa Dull of Canton borough, arrived in Towanda Saturday forenoon with the two Italians arrested at Canton on Thursday, charged by a detective from Bridgeport, Conn., with being implicated in the murder of a boy a year ago, and placed them in the county jail where they will be confined until requisition papers arrive. The Connecticut authorities are confident that the men in the Bradford county jail are the guilty ones. An effort will be made by friends of the prisoners to have them released on habeas corpus proceeding.

A Welcome Rain.

The rain of Saturday night and Sunday was very welcome in Towanda, if nowhere else. Main street was a place to make the eyes sore and the nose sneeze on Saturday, the sand on the new pavement being transformed into clouds of dust which made life miserable for every one who had occasion to be out. The general trend of comment would not look well in print.

Formed Partnership.

M. A. Middaugh, proprietor of the carriage and harness repository on Bridge street, has entered into partnership with C. D. Dimock, one of the largest and best known fur dealers in Bradford county. Mr. Dimock will make his headquarters at the place of business on Bridge street, where they will buy fur and give attention to that branch of the business.

Appointed Inspector.

Charles Fowler has been appointed by the court majority inspector of Monroe township, first election district, to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of L. C. Marcy.

Look for the big green front and you will find Kaufman's mammoth sale.

FROM LIFE'S OTHER SIDE.

Young Woman Becomes Insane and Is Taken to the County House.

A picture from life's other side came to the notice of the authorities on Saturday, when Mrs. Daniels, a young woman living on Pine street, was adjudged insane and taken to the county house at Burlington. It is one of the most pathetic cases to come to notice in Towanda in many a day.

A few years ago, the unfortunate woman was as pretty a girl as could be found in a day's travel. She married a man named Daniels and two children were born unto them, the first born dying in infancy. The loss of the baby preyed upon her mind, and then to add to her grief, the husband and father disappeared and has not been heard from in over a year.

The unfortunate woman, who is now but 26 years of age, has been acting strangely for some time and on Saturday her mania took a new turn. She went to Wysox and in the little cemetery there she dug up the earth, looking for her baby, she said. She came back home and said that her baby was not dead, that it had been buried alive in the Wysox cemetery and that she had been looking for it but without success. And then she went to a neighbor's and wanted their baby, saying it belonged to her, that they had dug it up from the cemetery.

An order of relief was secured, and Chief of Police Miller and F. R. Mitfen of the commissioner's office, went to the house where they found the unfortunate woman pounding on the floor with a sledge hammer, crying and singing alternately. With her was her little boy, about two years of age, and as bright and chubby a little fellow as could be found. They were placed in a carriage and taken to the county house, where both will be cared for.

ROADBED NEARING COMPLETION

But Little Grading Remains to Finish P., B. and E. to Canton.

But little grading remains to be done to finish the P., B. and E. roadbed from Powell to Canton. A force of men are now working on a cut just out of Canton borough, and when this job is done, the roadbed will be practically completed and ready for the ties and rails the entire distance between Powell and Canton.

Rails have been laid from Powell to a point known as the "rocks," about one mile, and from Canton to Cedar Ledge.

Jail Delivery.

James Gilhausen and Ira Doliver, who were serving terms in the Potter county jail at Coudersport, escaped Wednesday morning, and are still at liberty. A reward of $25 is offered by the sheriff for their capture. With an improvised file the two men filed through an iron rod and several rivets, then loosened a couple of clamps they swung open the door of their cell and reached an upstairs window. A bed blanket was torn into strips using these as a rope they lowered themselves to the ground, climbed the fence and disappeared. Gilhausen had been in jail but a short time, having been arrested on the charge of stealing a horse and buggy. Doliver was doing time because he was unable to furnish a $500 bond to keep the peace.

Bixby—Stanton.

Leon Bixby and Miss Hila Stanton, both of Leona, were united in marriage on Wednesday, Oct. 23, at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage in Monroeton, Rev. W. H. S. Looller officiating, using the impressive ring ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Bixby will reside near Troy on one of the farms belonging to the bride's father.

It Means Dollars To You

To keep your surplus money working. Interest at 3 per cent. is better than having money idle.

The Chemung Canal Trust Co., Elmira, N. Y., will pay you 3 Per Cent. on Certificates, Savings Accounts or Special Deposits.

We have an especially attractive proposition to business or professional men having surplus funds. Correspondence or personal calls solicited.

CHEMUNG CANAL TRUST CO., Elmira, N. Y.

Every grange should commemorate the 40th anniversary of the order, Dec. 6, 1907.

Every patron should be on the lookout to learn the work done at the National grange meeting to be held at Hartford, Conn., commencing Nov. 13. Much of interest to the members of the order is expected.

Pomona District No. 23 will be entitled to 76 delegates to attend the session of the State grange, to be held at West Chester, commencing Dec. 10; 64 from Bradford, and 12 from Sullivan.

Any fourth degree member in good standing may become a member of the Pomona grange by being proposed, elected and initiated. The fee accompanies the proposition.

Each patron who is not should become familiar with their rights and privileges in the order. We know no better way to do this than by studying the rules and regulations.

The deputies have commenced the work of grange inspecton with full confidence that all are doing well.

The vaccination law is still a hindrance to the education of many children, but we are glad to note some parents yielding for the sake of their children's education.

Pomona grange No. 23, P. of H., will be held at Wysox, Nov. 21 and 22, 1907, opening on Thursday at 10 o'clock a. m. Program as follows: Music by the grange; reading minutes of last meeting; reports of subordinate granges; appointment of committees; question box, in charge of Lecturer A. T. Lilley, music, followed by dinner, at Grange hall.

Afternoon session open at 2 o'clock, with music by Wysox quartet, followed by address of welcome by Hon. Louis Piollet; response by Pomona Master, C. P. Shaw; music, Spring Hill male quartet; essay, Mrs. W. S. Reynolds; question box, open in fifth degree at 3 p. m.; election of officers.

Evening session at 7:30, open to the public; music by Wysox Grange quartet; prayer by Rev. D. Davis; address by Rev. T. J. Niles; music, by Spring Hill male quartet; address by Hon. Mortimer Whitehead.

Friday morning, open at 9:45 with music by Spring Hill male quartet; question box; report of State deputies; report of committees; suggestions for the good of the order; song "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

Last Saturday evening found Towanda Valley grange of West Franklin, in comfortable quarters, and a goodly number in attendance. After the regular routine of business the Lecturer, Mrs. J. S. Mott, proceeded to carry out a well arranged program. Under the head of "Current Events," Miss Austin read well selected clippings from several newspapers. The question for discussion, "What is the Greatest Evil and How Can It Be Remedied," received the attention of quite a number of brothers and sisters. The consensus of opinion was that the liquor traffice is the greatest evil. Education was suggested as the great remedial power to overthrow it. The use of tobacco was mentioned, the graft curse referred to, while the thought was called to mind that the greatest evil is the failure of people in general to do as well as they know how to do.

By request of Towanda Valley grange, it is announced that there will be a grange rally at West Franklin on the 9th of November. There will be a special session of the grange in the forenoon; basket picnic dinner at noon, and prominent speakers will be present to entertain all, whether members of the order or not. Anybody will be welcomed to the pleasures of the day. Hon. R. S. Edminston has consented to be present, and other prominent speakers have been invited Bring well filled baskets, and the speakers will do the rest.

In the initial number of The National Grange, edited by the master of the National grange, we find: "It goes without saying that the paper will earnestly and constantly advocate the principles of the grange as taught in the organ's law of the order, for the social, mental, moral, and financial advancement of the farmer and his family. Its utterances upon questions discussed will be non-partisan and non-sectarian, recognizing the right of every person to affiliate with the political party and adopt the religious creed that seems to him or her to best represent their ideas. It will unflinchingly stand by those measures which the National grange agrees to be essential to the prosperity of the agricultural intersts of the country, upon the broad basis that whatever tends to the promotion of agriculture tends to the promotion of the legitimate interests of all the people. There will be no attempts to destroy any legitimate industry or to cripple any legitimate efforts upon the part of those engaged therein, but we shall constantly aim to prevent discrimination against agriculture in such efforts."

Every true patron approves the position taken in the initiative of this grange effort and will strive to carry them out in all walks of life.

INCONSTANT CHICAGO.

Fifteen Per Cent of Her Marriages End Unhappily.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Domestic infelicities, as aired in the Cook county courts, have increased at a startling ratio in the past six weeks. Cold figures, based upon the number of bills for divorces filed in the circuit and superior courts last week and the number of marriage licenses issued by the county clerk, hold forth the somewhat startling fact that the proportion of divorces granted in Cook county is 15 per cent of the marriage licenses issued. The public records show that while Cupid last week made 643 persons happy the divorce courts directed a body blow at the little god of love by granting to ninety-six persons decrees of separation, thus making the average a little more than 15 per cent.

PLOT AGAINST CZAR.

High Official Said to Have Been Arrested as a Conspirator.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 29.—It was reported during the day that the police had discovered another plot against the life of Emperor Nicholas.

A high official was said to have been arrested in this connection, but the police and gendarmes officials of St. Petersburg profess to know nothing of the matter and intimate that the rumors probably were due to the large number of arrests and searches made in connection with the assassination of General Maximoffsky, which had resulted in the capture of several accomplices of Mlle. Ragozinnikova, who comes from the province of Perm and is the daughter of a teacher in the Imperial Conservatory of Music.

The desperation of the woman is shown by the fact that when she was examined at the police station it was found that she carried inside her corsage a case containing thirteen pounds of a high explosive, a charge powerful enough to blow the entire building to pieces.

The woman was taken to the fortress of St. Peter and St. Paul, was tried by court martial and was sentenced to be executed by hanging.

Mutiny at Vladivostok.

Vladivostok, Oct. 29. — A mutiny among a number of the recently arrived army sappers was quickly suppressed by the use of machine guns. A battalion of sappers, armed with rifles, tried to capture one of the barracks here, but two companies of a rifle regiment which were quartered there brought machine guns into action and routed the attackers. A dozen of the latter were killed or wounded.

STEERED WITH PROPELLER.

Big Kaiser's Clever Captain Saves Disabled Steamship.

Plymouth, England, Oct. 29. — The North German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, from New York Oct. 22 for Bremen by way of Plymouth and Cherbourg, arrived here and reported that the loss of her rudder occurred when she was two and a half days out from New York while a fierce storm was raging.

She steamed the balance of the distance to Plymouth steered by her propellers alone. The day after the vessel lost her rudder a regular hurricane was encountered, and oil had to be used to lessen the violence of the seas.

The passengers were in bed when the accident happened and knew nothing of it for thirty-six hours, when they noticed the reduced daily runs and the captain explained what had happened.

Captain Polack remained incessantly on the bridge and did not have any sleep until the steamer reached the English channel. Beyond a delay of thirty hours in reaching this port the passengers of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse were in no way discommoded, and she left Plymouth for Cherbourg without any assistance.

MEAT DROPS.

Cudahy Packing Company Makes a Ten Per Cent Cut.

Omaha, Oct. 29.—The 10 per cent decrease in the price of meat announced by the Cudahy Packing company has become effective.

On account of the present financial situation this action of the Cudahy company was taken, and Edward A. Cudahy predicts an immediate decline in the price of produce and staples.

The reduction announced here affects not only fresh meats, but lard, butterine and other byproducts. So far as is known packers in Chicago, Kansas City and St. Louis have not taken similar action.

Edward A. Cudahy said: "General business expansion has been carried too far, and there has got to be a halt. We have been buying cheaper for several days, and we think that the conditions justify us in selling cheaper."

Charles H. Deere Dead.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Charles H. Deere, head of the great plow works at Moline, Ill., who has been ill in Chicago several months, died at the Lakota hotel. Present at his bedside were his wife and daughter, Mrs. William Butterworth, and the latter's husband. Mr. Deere had been sick more than a year. His ailment was diagnosed as pernicious anaemia. The decedent was born at Hancock, Vt., in 1837.

CARS RUN IN YONKERS.

Strike Settled by Intervention of Episcopal Clergyman.

Yonkers, N. Y., Oct. 29.—The strike of the conductors, motormen and starters of the Yonkers City railway, which was begun last Tuesday morning, having come to an end cars are running on the usual schedule time. All of the cars were manned by the old crews, the company having dispensed with the services of the strike breakers.

The bringing about of an understanding between the strikers and the officers of the Union Railway company, which operates the Yonkers line, was largely due to the efforts of the Rev. Dr. James E. Freeman, pastor of St. Andrew's Memorial Episcopal church, who acted in behalf of the strikers, and he will be a member of the arbitration committee which is to lay the question of wages before the board of directors at its next meeting.

The other members of the committee are the Rev. Charles R. Corley of St. Mary's Roman Catholic church, Dr. George B. Wray, Fremont Wilson and Frank Leighton. Leighton was a striker. President Maher of the Union Railway company at the conferences held Monday said that he had no authority to grant an increase in wages, but he promised to appoint a Yonkers man as superintendent of the Yonkers line. This was one of the demands made by the men when they struck.

According to the agreement reached, the strikers are to receive 20 and 22½ cents an hour until the board of directors, assisted by the arbitration committee, finally decides the wage question.

It may have occurred to you sometimes to wonder how the bird and fowl manage to cling to the perch. When the leg of the bird is bent the muscles contract, closing the foot, and in this way it is able to maintain its grasp.

It takes the harvest time to bring out with full force the costliness of sowing poor seed, which is beyond question the most shortsighted economy, so called, that can be found in connection with any phase of farm management.

One of the most extensive Mississippi valley onion raisers makes a practice of topping his onions into bushel crates in the field, where they are allowed to remain until thoroughly dry, when they are placed under cover until ready for shipment.

Other things being equal, the best flavored and finest butter is made from that cream which is churned the soonest after separation or skimming. As soon might one try to make a whistle out of a pig's tail as to make good butter out of stale or rancid cream.

As between men and women for harvesting the apple crop the latter are preferable from several points of view, possessing just as quick and deft a motion, while they exercise greater care in the handling of the fruit, a most important point from the standpoint of both buyer and seller.

The prosperity of the country seems in a very definite way to have outgrown the capacity of available labor to do the work required of it. Any one who has been compelled to hire help the past season has been painfully aware of the fact mentioned, and one of the perplexing features about the situation is that it seems to be going from bad to worse.

The good wife in the home, whose service knows no time nor hours, is entitled, to say the least, to the amount, $3 or $4 a week, for her own use which is paid to the average domestic besides her board and lodging. The fair minded, self respecting husband should feel a degree of pride in his wife which will keep him from compelling her to beg for every cent of money which she gets.

In order to overcome the tendency which many varieties of apple trees have of a too late maturing of the new season's growth of wood a good many orchardists follow the plan of stripping the leaves from the trees shortly after the fruit is harvested. This is done by machines designed for the purpose and is said to materially aid in the maturing of the wood.

The following irrigated strawberry story comes from an Idaho paper: In the year 1906 a Mr. Waite, living in Boise, had a strawberry bed of about an acre and a quarter in extent. From June 1 to July 7 he marketed 12,798 boxes, for which he received $807.70. In September he marketed forty-three boxes, which netted him $10, while from the 1st of October on the bed produced 2,447 boxes, from which he realized $414.97. This is certainly making a living from an acre of ground.

More than the producer of any other crop the fruit grower is at the mercy of the hailstorms which so often accompany the heavy thunder showers during the latter part of August and early September. A fall of hail that would do only slight damage to a corn or other grain crop would bruise an apple crop enough to render it unsalable, which would mean in most cases a total loss. Moreover, a frost at blossoming time will knock the orchardist out for the whole season, while it usually does but little damage to the grower of grain crops.

In covering the rosebushes this fall the object that should be kept in mind is that of preventing thawing and freezing of them during the midwinter and early spring days. While roses may go through the winter nicely with a dirt covering, we have known them to kill badly. Coarse litter or cornstalks in which mice are not likely to nest make an excellent covering, or the same results can be secured by laying the bushes down and covering with bare boards or an old door, which prevents rapid thawing and freezing which, more often than the intense cold of midwinter, are what kills the bushes.

If free air could have been cornered [illegible] would undoubtedly [illegible] necessity out today at so much per cubic yard and living in ease and luxury on the tax which they would be able to extort from an unwilling public. We still have much to be thankful for, and the situation referred to is not the least.

If there is a tribe of conscienceless sharks anywhere, it is the traveling quacks who prey upon confirmed invalids under the promise of curing "where all others have failed." If any of these chaps should come around, make them put up a cash guarantee equal to the fee they expect in case they effect a cure, and they can be counted upon to declare your case a hopeless and incurable one without even the trouble of a diagnosis.

The sugar beet production in the state of Kansas for the year 1906 was 70,000 tons. This is an increase of 715 per cent over the output of the previous year. This increase is in part due to the adaptability of Kansas land to the culture of beets and in part to the erection at Garden City of the largest beet sugar factory in the world, which contracted for and worked into a fine grade of sugar during the year most of the beet product of the state.

A good friend of the writer from the state experiment station who is a deal more interested in horticulture than he is in the habits of bugs and grasshoppers laid a panama hat on the ground in the orchard at harvest time this year while making notes on blocks of sprayed and unsprayed trees. At the close of the day he found that the grasshoppers had eaten away a portion of the leather hat band and seriously marred the fine straw on the outside. Clothing left on the ground will be riddled by these pests almost as quickly as it would be if sprinkled with sulphuric acid.

Any effective plan for opening the lower Mississippi to navigation by freight steamers of any size would seem to have to go hand in hand with a policy of reforestration which will replace the timber on the northern hill slopes and valleys near the headwaters of the big river, which have been ruthlessly stripped by the rapacious lumbermen, but which in days gone by played a most important part in conserving the moisture in the localities mentioned and in regulating the flow of water, serving largely to prevent the dangers of flood and the scant flow of periods of drought.

In the case of both book agents and commission men discredit is thrown upon the two vocations as a whole because of the trickery, dishonesty and brass exhibited by a relatively small number of individuals. If a peddler of books sticks his foot in the door so as to prevent the lady of the house from closing it until she learns his business his discourtesy is likely to weigh more in her mind than the gentlemanly demeanor of half a dozen respectable agents. In the same way, if a grower of fruits and vegetables gets stuck at the hands of a commission house he is quite likely to remember this a longer time than the fair dealing of half a dozen honest houses.

According to a report recently made public, officials of the department of the interior do not seem to be worried by the likelihood of a fuel famine in the near future. In this they assert that, not including great areas of lignite, which will be mined only after more valuable coal deposits have been exhausted, the geological survey has determined that there are townships in western South Dakota, Nebraska and Kansas, aggregating over 60,000,000 acres, each township of which contains workable deposits of coal. During the present year territory containing more than 20,000,000 acres in which workable coal exists have been examined. In view of the fact that these areas are not only conveniently located with reference to transportation, and every acre is subject to purchase under the coal land laws, a famine of any severity would seem to be largely due to mere failure to dig the fuel out of the ground.

A north Iowa farmer has experimented with mint raising the past season, and his efforts were so successful that next year he plans to put out fifty acres. While the weather conditions throughout the growing season were not the most favorable, the crop gave him a return of $65 per acre. The mint was planted in rows one way, cultivated like any other crop, cut with a mower, raked with a horse rake and hauled to the still in basket racks. The mint was pitched into vats equipped with tight covers holding about forty barrels each and trod down by a man, when the covers were put on and steam was forced into the bottom of the vat from a traction engine. A pipe from the top leads to a system of distilling pipes that are cooled by streams of water flowing over them, which condenses the steam, the distilled oil of peppermint being easily separated from the water. The oil is worth $2.66 per pound. The cost of the outfit used was about $800. The growing of peppermint has come to be quite an industry in Michigan and Indiana and bids fair to spread to other states.

PROGRESS IN FORESTRY.

There is probably no line of activity in the various fields which it seeks to cover that the federal department of agriculture is devoting more attention to or laying greater emphasis upon than that of the preservation of our present forest areas and the planting of the different varieties of trees to take the place of the enormous number that are cut annually to supply the needs of the country. One of the bulletins having this object in view and issued early in August tells of the progress and value of tree planting as conducted within the past two decades, in many cases at the suggestion of or in active co-operation with the forest service of the agricultural department. The report states that the work of forest planting has been progressing very favorably in every state in the Union, especially in California, the great middle west and in the New England states. In the north and northeast white pine, chestnut, larch and spruce seem to be chiefly planted; in the middle west the catalpa, black locust, Osage orange and Russian mulberry are the favorites, while in California the eucalyptus seem to have a virtual monopoly. In summarizing some of the tangible results that have been attained as a result of forest planting the bulletin cites the case of a sixteen-year-old catalpa plantation in Pawnee county, Neb., which gave a net return at the time the plantation was cut of $152.17 per acre, which was an annual profit of $6.24 per acre. A ten-year-old plantation of the same species in Kansas showed a net value of $197.55 per acre, while another in Nebraska gave a net income of $170.50 per acre when fourteen years old, which amounts to an annual income of $8.69 per acre. Osage orange has been known to produce as high as 2,640 first class posts and 2,272 second class posts per acre, than which none are better. The suggestion is made that land producing such a forest as this could hardly be put to a better use, since timber is one of the easiest crops to raise and from this time on at least will never go begging for a market. Red cedar in plantations twenty-five years old has been known to reach a value of $200.54 per acre. European larch, used for fence posts or telephone posts, reaches an average value of $200 to $300. White pine plantations at forty years old have exceeded a value of $300 per acre. The bulletin points out that in almost every section of the country there is one forest tree or more which can be planted with assurance of commercial success if the plantation is properly established and given care. Any who are interested in the subject of tree planting on a large or even modest scale can secure the publications on forestry upon application to the forest service, United States department of agriculture, Washington. These will be found practical and helpful, as they have been got up and published with the farmer and landowner especially in view.

A RAINY DAY JOB.

During some of the disagreeable days of the fall when it is too nasty to plow and too wet to husk it would not be a bad idea to give the henhouse a thorough renovating before the winter sets in. This should include a thorough cleaning out of all rubbish, whitewashing of the interior, a fumigation of the place with sulphur by sprinkling powdered sulphur on a shovelful of live coals, while on some bright day one should secure a generous supply of road dust and wood ashes for the dust bath. Another job that might be attended to most any day is a plugging up of any holes or cracks through which minks or skunks may gain entrance to the hennery, a thing that they are more than likely to do when the poultry begins to seek the shelter of the house on the colder nights of late fall and early winter. If there are any burrows in the neighborhood which are thought to be inhabited by skunks, all but one hole should be plugged up and in this a rag or piece of absorbent cotton inserted which has been moistened with carbon bisulphide, after which this should also be closed. It is better from every point of view to kill a skunk in his own hole than to waylay him in the henhouse after he has killed a dozen or more chickens.

TOO CONSCIENTIOUS.

As the pupils in the country and town schools prosecute their work during the coming months it will be well for the thoughtful parent to keep a close watch of the ambitious boy or girl—it is more likely to be the latter than the former—who is prone to go beyond the limits of physical and nervous endurance in the desire they may have to excel in the studies which they are taking. As a rule, girls are more conscientious than boys in the matter of study work, while the latter are safeguarded against overdoing by a natural and perhaps barbarian instinct which causes them to throw their books aside and go out of doors when the tension has reached a certain point. But in the case of the girl this play instinct seems to be weaker than her zeal for work and desire to excel, with the result that in the immature and formative period of her physical development she is likely to suffer injury from the effect of which she can never wholly recover. This danger is seldom realized by the pupil, but should be by the parent. Fortunate from the standpoint of physical well being is the tomboy girl, for she can tone down, but for her more delicate sister there is not the same possibility of toning up if the strain of overwork is carried too far.

The Lady In the Moon.

An amateur astronomer writes of the "lady in the moon:" "It is a very beautiful face seen in profile and uplifted, as though in proud disdain of things terrestrial. The curve of the throat is exquisite, and indeed the entire outline is marvelously lifelike. The moon lady may best be observed through a small opera glass when our satellite is at half. At that time the tip of the chin about touches the terminator—that is, the dividing line between the light and dark portions of the lunar surface. Most people can recognize the man in the moon. Well, the hair of the lady, in which I can always fancy I see a spray of orange blossom, forms the man's left eye, the nose and mouth his nose, and the chin and throat the man's mouth."

WHEN LOVE GROWS COLD.

Sad Case of Italian Woman Who Fled From Husband and Home.

The Lehigh Valley detectives and the police have unearthed a terrible case of degradation in Waverly.

One of the detectives was walking through the East Waverly yard when a woman came running down the tracks with an Italian in close pursuit. He stopped them and the woman asked his protection.

The Italian claimed she was his wife and demanded that she return to the box car settlement, where he said he lived. The woman denied his statement and claimed that she was being detained against her will and subjected to gross indignities to support the man who threatened to cut off her ears if she attempted to escape.

The woman was taken to the East Waverly depot and Chief Brooks was called to that place and he took the woman to police headquarters in Waverly.

She was good looking and fairly intelligent and gave her age as 26. She said that several months ago she resided in Reading and deserted her husband for the Italian. He treated her well as long as his money lasted, but when he was broke he brought her to Waverly and kept her locked in a box car.

She claimed to have friends in Elmira and Chief of Police Brooks sent her to that city.

"Pneumonia's Deadly Work

had so seriously affected my right lung," writes Mrs. Fannie Connor of Rural Route 1, Georgetown, Tenn., "that I coughed continuously night and day and the neighbors' prediction—consumption—seemed inevitable, until my husband brought home a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, which in my case proved to be the only real cough cure and restorer of weak, sore lungs." When all other remedies utterly fail, you may win in the battle against lung and throat troubles with New Discovery, the Real cure. Guaranteed by Turner's Drug store. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

County Treasurer.

To the Voters of Bradford County:—

Gentlemen—Two years ago I circulated two petitions, one asking your County Judge to reduce the price paid for boarding county prisoners from 40 cents to 25 cents per day; the other asking that the fees paid the county treasurer be reduced from $4200 to $1500 per year. The petitions praying for relief from exhorbitant expenditures on these two items, signed by about 5000 taxpayers, were properly presented. The Court did his part, granted the request of the taxpayers as to boarding the prisoners and fixed the price of 25 cents per day. The Board of County Commissnoners and Auditors, a majority of whom were pledged to reduce the fees paid the County Treasurer to $1500 per year, met, and instead of reducing the fees as pledged, fixed the compensation at about $3,000 per year, and put forth the argument that the question of reducing the compensation had not been made an issue before the caucus with notice to the candidates.

I firmly believe that our taxes are unnecessarily high and that $1500 per annum is a sufficient compensation for the County Treasurer, and to bring the matter squarely before the taxpayers of Bradford County, I announce myself a candidate for the office of County Treasurer under Republican rules, and publicly assert if elected that I will discharge all the duties appertaining to said office, and not charge or accept a sum total greater than $1500 per year, and will present a petition to the proper board asking for said reduction in the sums paid to the County Treasurer, such change to take place January 1st, 1909. If you favor reducing the taxes in this item, also in other channels, I respectfully solicit your support and influence at the primaries on April 11, 1908. FRANK N. MOORE.

NEW YORK FASHIONS

Pattern For Doll's Jumper Costume Designed by May Manton—No. 5806.

Every normal little girl likes to see her dollies well dressed, and daughters of wise mammas are apt to make the garments themselves. Here is a dainty yet simple little dress that will not strain the powers of even the beginner in needlework, while it is smart and altogether attractive. The jumper waist is of the newest sort, with narrow mandarin sleeves, and the plaited skirt is just like the favorite one of the real live school girls. In this case the frock is made of cashmere, in one of pretty rose colors that are so fashionable, and the guimpe of embroidered swiss muslin, but there are as many materials appropriate for dolly as for her live prototype.

The costume consists of skirt, jumper and guimpe. The jumper is made with front and backs and is closed invisibly at the back, its lower edges being joined to a belt. The skirt is made in one straight piece laid in overlapping plaits and the guimpe with plain front and backs and full sleeves.

The quantity of material required for a doll of medium size (22 inches long) is 1⅝ yards 21, 1¼ yards 27 or three-quarters of a yard 44 inches wide, with 3½ yards of banding for the dress and three-eighths of a yard 36 inches wide for the guimpe.

Sizes for dolls of 18, 22 and 26 inches long.

TRUSTEES' MEETING.

Packer Hospital Trustees Ratify Work of Executive Committee.

The semi-annual meeting of the trustees of the Robert Packer hospital was held in Sayre Tuesday afternoon and the trustees ratified the work of the executive committee in the matter of leasing the Wilbur House and in erecting an additional ward to the hospital.

As soon as the trustees ratified the lease of the Wilbur House to Benjamin Loop it was ready for the signatures of the president of the board and Mr. Loop, and both were later appended. M. H. Sawtelle, treasurer of the trustees reported that on June 1 of this year the hospital had on hand moneys amounting to $2,078.96 and from that time until Oct. 22, $7,799.13 had been received. The disbursements from June to Oct. 1, amounted to $7,373.44, so that there was in the hands of the treasurer Tuesday funds amounting to $2,505.65. The training school for nurses had $18 on June 1. The Waverly auxiliary had given $50, a friend had given $125, the Rome and Wysox auxiliaries had given $33.15, so that the training school now has funds amounting to $226.15.

Dr. C. H. Ott, surgeon-in-chief of the hospital gave a verbal report in which he announced that the hospital is now doing more work than ever in the past. The trustees present at the meeting were Harry Streeter, R. A. Mercur, E. F. Kizer and Hon. Mial E. Lilley of Towanda; Rev. John Costello of Williamsport; Dr. G. M. Cady, Nichols, N. Y.; Hon. Louis Piollet, Wysox; Dr. C. L. Stevens, M. P. Murray, J. S. Thurston, H. F. Maynard, and Hon. L. T. Hoyt, Athens; Rush J. Thomson, Dushore; H. G. Merrian, F. E. Lyford, Waverly; M. H. Sawtelle, Bert Hayden, Hon. E. M. Dunham and J. W. Bishop, Sayre.

Decides Against Water Company.

The Waverly authorities will at once make application to the Supreme Court asking that the Waverly Water Company's plant be condemned, and appraisers appointed. The Court of Appeals has sustained the action of the Appellate Division in the litigation between the village and the Waverly Water Company. Two years ago the village made application to Supreme Court for the condemnation and appraisal of the water works. The company's attorneys raised the point that the village should first have made application to the State Water Commission for permission to begin such a proceeding. Justice Sewell decided against the company. The village appealed and the Appellate Division unanimously reversed the decision. The Court of Appeals has sustained the latter's position. The case was argued before the court of appeals on October 4, Village Attorney F. A. Bell and Attorney W. N. Tompkins of Ithaca, appearing for the village and Attorney F. E. Hawkes for the water company.

Land Sale at Troy.

A correspondent writing from Troy says: "A land sale took place in upper West Main street, this village, on Saturday afternoon. The Troy Cornet band was engaged to play both forenoon and afternoon and the sale was largely attended by those in this village and surrounding towns. Every lot was sold and the lot advertised to be given away was drawn by Master Archie Rockwell, who was lucky twice in one week; for, it will be remembered, that this lad, the son of Sam Rockwell, was one of the two boys who escaped death and serious injury in the cattle yards over which the wreckage was piled one week ago Saturday.

Attractive Window Display.

The Turner drug store has one of the most attractive window displays seen in Towanda in a long while. It is the work of Dudley Turner, who is an artist in the window arranging line. The display consists of three poles stood so as to support a glass kettle holding cough drops. Beneath the kettle is an electric fan to which is attached strips of colored papers, which when playing in the wind from the fan, resemble a blazing fire lapping the bottom of the kettle. A card sign reads "Cough drops, get 'em while they're hot." The display is attracting much attention.

Will Consolidate Banks.

A movement is under way in Wilkes-Barre for the consolidation of the Miners' Savings bank and the Anthracite Savings bank, both of that city, and erect for the merged institutions, a fine modern banking house at the corner of West Market and Franklin streets. The directors of the two banks have had the matter under consideration for several weeks and it is expected that a decision will be arrived at soon.

The Lucky Townships.

The townships in Bradford county which are entitled to a share of the money appropriated for township High schools in 1905 are: Orwell, $450; Wyalusing, $450; Herrick, $300; Smithfield, $300; Warren Center, $300. These townships have properly certified courses and teachers and complied with every requirement of the Act of 1905.

Killed a Hen Hawk.

Merton Platt while hunting in Wysox township, Thursday morning shot a large hen hawk. The bird measured three feet and four inches from tip to tip of the wings.

May Have Tile Works.

A large deposit of valuable fire clay has been found near Canton, and there is a possibility of a factory being built for the manufacture of paving brick and tile.

MINING COMPANY ORGANIZED.

Will Develop Cobalt Field in Northern Canada.

The Holden Silver Mining company, in which several Bradford countians are interested, was organized at Wilkes-Barre last Saturday, a meeting being held in the Valley Hotel for that purpose.

The following officers were elected: President, C. R. Evans, Wilkes-Barre; vice-president, Dr. L. R. Lantz, Wyalusing; secretary, E. E. Smith, Wyalusing; treasurer, J. J. Becker, Wilkes-Barre. Directors — George Evans, Pittston; H. F. Smith, Lincoln Welles, G. M. Hoffman, Wyalusing; M. E. Birchard, Montrose; George Fassett, Laceyville; R. M. Holden, Cobalt, Canada.

The organization is the result of a visit to the silver fields of Cobalt by a number of local people and others of this section of the state. Promoting the affair was R. H. Holden, one of the best known mining engineers of Canada, and who during the local men's visit showed them over the fields, and of its prospects.

At the meeting Mr. Mitchell, who is counsel for the company, displayed valuable specimens of the ore, which was mined by Mr. Holden. Its composition is about 80 per cent. silver and the remainder is of cobalt and nickolite. The specimens displayed were the same as were shown the local people during their visit to the stripplings at Cobalt, Can., and which thoroughly impressed a number of new stockholders.

Mr. Holden in addressing the meeting talked on the condition of the mines. He said that the ore displayed was the most valuable found on this continent today. Its composition is of the purest and a ton is worth $20,000. His narration of the visits of prospectors to those fields was interesting. He said that at least 3,000 men had prospected in that section during the past three years, and of that number 50 came out as millionaires. The land today is all being bought by the companies, leaving very little chance for the lone prospector. The local company's land lies in the James township, district of Canada, and consists of seven large claims.

In the evening the members of the company gathered in J. J. Becker's dining room, where dinner was served. Those present were: R. M. Holden and George Mitchell, Canada; G. A. Cotton, Buffalo; C. R. Evans, J. J. Becker, J. M. Burdick, V. Charles Smith, Wilkes-Barre; G. Evans, A. R. Davenport, Herman Weeks, Pittston; Dr. L. R. Lance, G. M. Hoffman, Joseph Middendorf, H. F. Smith, Lincoln Welles, E. E. Smith, C. C. Smith, Laceyville; George W. Fassett and Edward Silvara, Dushore.

Nearing Completion.

The new state road between Athens and Milan is to be completed in the near future and will be one of the finest thoroughfares in the state. Saturday night when the force of men employed left their work there remained but 2,100 feet of road to be completed and at the rate which has been an average of 200 feet can be completed in a day. This means that very early in November the big contract will have been completed.

Terrible Disease.

"Telephone neck" is the latest bad disease to invade the country and is said to be especially prevalent in the smaller towns and country where the telephone companies use what are known as "party lines." Physicians claim it is due to leaning over the telephone when someone is talking to a neighbor over a party line. Everything has been done in the past to dissuade listening over these party lines until it seems that now even nature has revolted.

Will Cost Large Sum.

It will cost $200,000 to build the trolley road from Nichols to LeRaysville, and the promoters are confident of raising that amount. Every farmer along the proposed route has given a right of way, and earnest efforts are being made to raise the funds to build the road.

Will Hear Kaufman-Rosenthal Case.

J. T. Hested of New Albany, 'Squire J. H. Orcutt of Towanda, and 'Squire H. K. Mott of LeRoy, have been appointed arbitrators to hear the case of M. Kaufman vs. David Rosenthal, a suit for slander growing out of alleged remarks made by Rosenthal following the robbery of the Kaufman home a few months ago. The arbitrators will hear the case in the court house on Friday, Nov. 8.

KIDNEY TROUBLE

The importance of knowing just what to do when one has kidney disease or urinary troubles, is best answered by the following letter which was recently published in the Poughkeepsie, N. Y., News-Press:

MILLERTON, Dutchess Co., N. Y.

"Dr. David Kennedy, Dear Sir:—For more than eighteen months I was so badly afflicted with kidney trouble I could scarcely walk a quarter of a mile without almost fainting. I did not gain any until I began to use Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. After using the first bottle I noticed a decided improvement which continued, and I know that saved my life, for I was in a miserable condition up to the time I began to take it—my friends thought I never would be better.

My sister also has been very sick with bladder trouble for over a year, so bad that quantities of blood would come from her. She suffered at times most frightful pain, and nothing seemed to help her until she began the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. She is now using her third bottle, and is like a different person.

Serious Hunting Accident Near LeRaysville—Cement Blocks Being Manufactured at Wyalusing—Doctor Goes to Hospital, Etc.

John English of this place, reports that he planted 12 bushels of those "dad's rousers" potatoes last Spring and has harvested 190 bushels of fine tubers.—New Albany Mirror.

Just to show that he's not feeling his years C. A. Stowell rode his bicycle from Wyalusing to Laceyville in one hour and 15 minutes on Saturday and he didn't think he was making very fast time, either.—Laceyville Messenger.

Notwithstanding that this is a year of high-priced potatoes, yet every few days there is noted some of the tubers have a big size to them also. In the latter class is one raised by Samuel Brown of Browntown, which measures nine inches in diameter.—Wyalusing Rocket.

A subscriber asks our opinion of a man that brings a suit case filled with bottles of whiskey from other "hell holes" for those who otherwise would not get it. It is impossible for us to express our contempt for such a creature in human form. If he were a son of Satan and a native of Hades, he would disgrace his father and dishonor his country.—New Albany Mirror.

Dr. Goes to Hospital.

About a week ago Dr. F. L. Inslee of LeRaysville, was called to James Brink's at East Orwell and after hitching his horse started for the house. On his way he slipped and to protect himself put out his left hand. He fell heavily and injured the hand badly. In a day or two the hand began to swell and by Saturday the hand and forearm were in such an inflammed condition that he concluded to go to the Packer hospital for treatment.—LeRaysville Times.

Off for the Sunny South.

The company to have charge of the Mexican-American lumber deal and cut the timber on the large tract recently purchased in Southern Mexico, started for that country on Wednesday of this week. All the arrangements have been completed. The machinery has been shipped and will be on hand by the time they arrive. From town go S. W. Johnson, G. A. Saxton, Day H. Johnson and Earl Limes. They will be joined at Buffalo, by the others and will go direct to the City of Mexico. They are to be congratulated upon being permitted to escape the extreme cold weather of this latitude and enjoy real Summer in 1907.—LeLaysville Times.

Cement Blocks.

The Wyalusing Cement Block company has been manufacturing blocks for their new building, near the electric light plant, for some time past, says the Wyalusing Rocket. They have had a force of men consisting of an expert and two assistants who have been getting out 50 blocks on an average each day. The blocks are about two feet long, ten inches thick and one foot high. The blocks have the usual air chambers, and besides making a most substatntial building, will also make an imposing structure, having as they do, the handsome rock face that makes the usual stone building so beautiful. The blocks are supposed to "season" about three weeks before being placed in the building, and as soon as the amount of time has elapsed the company expect to commence the erection of their new building on the Improvement company's tract.

The Gun Burst.

Rodney Finney, who resides at Brushville, about three miles South of LeRaysville, came near losing his life on Wednesday morning of last week. Getting up at break of day he took a muzzle-loading shotgun and went back on the hill for game. He had gone about half a mile from home when he saw a partridge. He fired at the bird and the load was too heavy for the gun, it burst the left hand barrell. A piece of the gun struck him just below the right eye, cutting an ugly wound, breaking the cheek bone, jaw bone and knocking out five teeth. Another piece tore his right hand in a bad manner. He hurried to the house and was brought to the office of Dr. F. L. Inslee, at LeRaysville, where the wounds were dressed. It was feared at first that he would lose his eyesight, but fortunately such will not be the case.—LeRaysville Times.

Boy's Sad Misfortune.

Falling from an appie tree to the ground, a distance of nearly 20 feet, Harry, the 14 years old son of Dr. W. G. Lent of Wellsboro, broke his arm in a way that will probably cripple him for life. He struck on his elbow, splitting the bone of the left forearm so that a portion of it remained sticking in the ground. Young Lent is a violin player of promise. It is feared that he will always have a stiff left arm, and that his musical studies, in which he has been very diligent, are suddenly and unfortunately ended.

A subpoena in divorce has been awarded in the case of Minnie Shultz vs. George Shultz.

TWO COURT OPINIONS.

Judge Fanning Ruled in Two Important Cases on Monday.

Two important court rulings were filed Monday, Judge Fanning opining in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Perley H. Nichols, a fish case, and also in the case of John N. Califf vs. the First National bank of Towanda.

Perley H. Nichols, a special game protector and fish warden, was convicted before Justice Johnson of Athens, of taking game fish out of season. He was convicted on the testimony of Chester Thomas, with whom he was angling and who swore that he took the fish. After the conviction of Nichols, Thomas was arrested and while he had swore to the taking of game fish with Nichols, yet he was acquitted of the charge. The case of Nichols was taken to court, and Judge Fanning in his opinion confirms the conviction. The case will now be taken to the supreme court.

The case of John N. Califf, Esq., vs. the First National bank of Towanda, was tried at a recent term of court, and Mr. Califf was given a verdict against the bank. A rule was entered to show cause why the verdict should not be set aside and one entered in favor of the defendant bank. Judge Fanning has discharged the rule and allows the verdict in favor of Mr. Califf to stand.

Robber Fatally Wounded.

Charles Rebuck, a Pennsylvania railroad employe, was shot early Wednesday morning by Harry Rose a railroad detective, while trying to escape after he had been captured in a merchandise car that had been broken into in the Renovo yards, near Williamsport. Rebuck died a few hours later. The railroad company is making a determined effort to break up the gangs of robbers that are operating along its lines and recent captures have included trusted employes. Rose claims the shooting was accidental. He says that he was firing his revolver to frighten Rebuck and just as he fired the third time he stumbled and fell, the pistol being jerked down in range with the fleeing man.

The Review's Circulation.

The circulation of The Daily Review each morning is 3,250, actual count, 1,200 new subscribers having been added to the list since Oct. 1, which gives the paper the largest circulation in Northern Pennsylvania. Every rural mail route has a large number of subscribers, and there is no nook or corner in Bradford county where the paper does not circulate. The merchant who would reach the buyers of the county would do well to investigate the merits of this paper as a medium of talking to the people within a trading distance. It is time to plant a holiday ad, and in The Review is the proper place to do the planting.

Francis E. Decker of Buffalo, and Helen K. Vosburg of Skinners Eddy, were united in marriage by Rev. T. R. Warnock at the home of the bride's father, T. B. Vosburg, Oct. 16. They will reside in Buffalo, where the groom holds a responsible position with the Swift Beef company.

Purchased by D. C. DeWitt, Esq.

A house and lot in Athens borough sold by Sheriff Griffin on an execution in the suit of Elmer Osborn vs. Elmer Osborn, administrator, etc., of Emma E. June, deceased, and Elmer Osborn, administrator of Herman June, deceased, was purchased by D. C. DeWitt, Esq., of Towanda.

Mrs. M. A. Cranmer of Sheshequin, was shopping in town yesterday.

SUCCESSFUL SALE.

Large Crowd at the Sale of the Kirwan Livery Equipment.

The administrator's sale of the Kirwan livery equipment drew a large crowd Friday, and the property struck down brought fair prices. Morris Shepard and Port Northrop cried the sale, Benj. Kuykendall, Jr., acting in the capacity of clerk. Twenty-seven head of live stock was disposed of, 24 horses and three ponies. The highest price paid for a single horse was $150, while $250 was the top price for a team. Several carriages, eight of the 12 cabs, and a number of other vehicles, together with harness, etc., were put under the hammer and knocked down to the highest bidder.

The administrators' sale of the Kirwan livery equipment was concluded Saturday afternoon, when the last article was disposed of. Everything was sold, there not being a horse, harness, wagon, blanket or whip left. The stock inventoried at $3,500, but over $4,500 was realized by selling the property separately under the auctioneer's hammer.

HELD FOR MURDER.

Mansfield Man Found Dead in Bath Jail Believed to Have Been Slain.

It has formally been determined that Edward Dann of Mansfield, whose body was buried last week, was murdered in the Bath, N. Y., jail. Henry Thomas, one of the three men in the Bath jail for robbery, is charged by the coroner's jury with Dann's death. Thomas is said to have struck Dann, while in the latter's cell, breaking his neck and causing instant death. It was at first reported that Dann had fallen off his cott while asleep, and accidentally sustained the injury which resulted in his death. Thomas has just been sentenced to three years' imprisonment in Auburn prison for burglary.

It is now a question whether Thomas will be pardoned for burglary and tried for murder or be required to serve his three years' sentence n Auburn and then be compelled to answer to the capital crime.

Five Cents Mileage for Election Judges

In reimbursing the counties for the money they expended for the uniform primaries last June, the auditor general has fixed a uniform rate of five cents a mile for the mileage of judges of election making their returns to the county commissioners. Other expenses of the elections were the printing and distribution of the ballots, and the pay of the election officers. A Harrisburg dispatch says that the distribution of the fund, which was created by the recent legislature, has been delayed by the lack of uniformity in the bills returned by the counties. Nearly all of the bills were excessive, and were returned for correction.

Day Dreaming.

The Binghamton Press, and some other contemporaries doing business over the York state line are dreaming of an all water route from Binghamton to Towanda. Owego has a motor boat club, and will have a dam across the Susquehanna to back up enough water in which to run their crafts, and now Binghamton boatmen want the Susquehanna dredged and a channel made all the way to Towanda, "The City of Promise." It would take much coin to dredge the river in some places, and the chances are, without state aid it never can be done.

Hallowe'en Social.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of West Franklin, will hold a masquerade social on Hallowe'en evening, Oct. 31. All comers are asked to furnish a face mask, sheet and pillow case for the masquerade. Home made candies, pop corn and apples will be for sale. Fortune telling booth a specialty. Hallowe'en games will be played. Refreshment served for 10 cents. Everything first class.

FINGER BITTEN OFF BY RAT.

Mrs. Thomas J. Duggan of Long Valley, Suffers Painful Injury.

Mrs. Duggan, wife of Thomas J. Duggan, proprietor of the big general store at Long Valley, lost the end of one of her fingers in a peculiar manner Tuesday morning. She was assisting in the store, and in reaching in a box for a package, a large rat grabbed her by the hand, and before the rodent could be compelled to let go, the end of the first finger was lacerated so badly that amputation back of the nail was necessary.

Mrs. Duggan came to Towanda, and the end of the finger was amputated by Dr. Woodburn. It is the first case of its kind in this section.

This is your chance to buy your Winter outfit at Kaufman's mammoth sale, consisting of suits, overcoats rain coats, top coats, and a full line of boots, shoes, and rubber goods.
